Introductory note

Part II of the present Supplement covers the practice of the Security Council in relation to its provisional rules of procedure and relevant Articles of the Charter of the United Nations. Since the provisional rules of procedure are routinely applied by the Council at its formal meetings, the focus of part II is on special applications of the rules in the proceedings of the Council, rather than on the standard applications of the rules.

Part II is divided into 10 sections, in the order of the relevant chapters of the provisional rules of procedure, as follows: section I, meetings and records (Article 28 of the Charter and rules 1 to 5 and 48 to 57); section II, agenda (rules 6 to 12); section III, representation and credentials (rules 13 to 17); section IV, presidency (rules 18 to 20); section V, Secretariat (rules 21 to 26); section VI, conduct of business (rules 27, 29, 30 and 33); section VII, participation (rules 37 and 39); section VIII, decision-making and voting (Article 27 of the Charter and rules 31, 32, 34 to 36, 38 and 40); section IX, languages (rules 41 to 47); and section X, provisional status of the rules of procedure (Article 30 of the Charter).

The remaining rules are covered in other parts of the present Supplement, as follows: rule 28, concerning subsidiary organs of the Council, in parts IX and X; and rule 61, concerning relations with other United Nations organs, in part IV.

During the period under review, there were no instances of the application of rules 58 to 60, concerning the admission of new Members, and therefore the present Supplement contains no material relating to those rules.

During the period under review, the Council held a total of 552 meetings: 256 meetings were held in 2016, and 296 in 2017. Most of the meetings were public; the Council held 19 private meetings in 2016 and 14 private meetings in 2017. The Council held a total of 170 informal consultations of the whole in 2016, and 137 in 2017. In 2016 and 2017, Council members continued to meet in the framework of informal interactive dialogues and Arria-formula meetings, following past practice. During the period under review, the Council continued to expand the practice of holding “wrap-up sessions” at the end of the month, some of which were conducted at public meetings of the Council.

While remaining seized of 68 agenda items, the Council at its meetings considered 49 items in 2016, and 52 items in 2017. Of the 49 items considered in 2016, 27 concerned country-specific and regional items, and 22 thematic and other issues. Of the 52 items considered by the Council in 2017, 27 concerned country-specific and regional situations, and 25 thematic and other issues.

During the period under review, the Council added the item entitled “Identical letters dated 19 January 2016 from the Permanent Representative of Colombia to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General and the President of the Security Council (S/2016/53)” to the list of matters before it, and the item entitled “The situation in Timor-Leste” was removed from the list.

In 2016, the Council adopted 77 resolutions and issued 19 statements by the President and, in 2017, the Council adopted 61 resolutions and issued 27 statements by the President, for a total of 138 resolutions and 46 presidential statements. During the period under review, three draft resolutions were not adopted for lack of the required nine affirmative votes, two in 2016 and one in 2017; and eight draft resolutions were not adopted because of the negative vote of a permanent member, two in 2016 and six in 2017.

During the period under review the Council also issued 23 notes by the President, 14 in 2016 and 9 in 2017, as well as 88 letters by the President, 45 in 2016 and 43 in 2017.

In connection with the question of its working methods, the Council held an open debate under the item entitled “Implementation of the note by the President of the Security Council (S/2010/507)” on 19 July 2016,<sup>1</sup> during which many aspects of the procedure and practice of the Council were discussed (see cases 1, 4, 6 and 9 below). Three notes by the President issued during the period under review addressed various aspects of the working methods of the Council. The note dated 22 February 2016 pertained to the work of the subsidiary organs of the Council and outlined, inter alia, measures to improve the transparency of their work, and the note dated 15 July 2016 presented measures concerning the preparation of newly elected members.<sup>2</sup> The note by the President dated 30 August 2017<sup>3</sup> incorporated and further developed measures agreed to by the Council with regard to its working methods contained in 13 previous notes by the President<sup>4</sup> adopted after the issuance of the note dated 26 July 2010.<sup>5</sup> The new note was issued under the Chairmanship of Japan of the Informal Working Group on Documentation and Other Procedural Questions. Following the adoption of the new note, the President of the Security Council on 30 August 2017 issued a statement to the press highlighting the main revisions of the working methods contained in the note, with regard to the process of consultation on the monthly programme of work, the effective conduct of informal consultations, and the process of drafting outcome documents of the Council. In the new note reference was made to the concept of “penholder(s)”, as the informal arrangement whereby one or more Council members initiate and chair the informal drafting process aimed at facilitating timely initiatives to ensure Council action while preserving an element of continuity.<sup>6</sup> Other aspects of the working methods were revised, relating to the dialogue with non-Council members and bodies, and missions of the Security Council, including joint missions with the Peace and Security Council of the African Union.<sup>7</sup>

I. Meetings and records

Note

Section I covers the practice of the Security Council concerning meetings, publicity and the records of the Council, in relation to Article 28 of the Charter of the United Nations and rules 1 to 5 and 48 to 57 of the provisional rules of procedure of the Council.

Article 28

1. The Security Council shall be so organized as to be able to function continuously. Each member of the Security Council shall for this purpose be represented at all times at the seat of the Organization.

2. The Security Council shall hold periodic meetings at which each of its members may, if it so desires, be represented by a member of the government or by some other specially designated representative.

3. The Security Council may hold meetings at such places other than the seat of the Organization as in its judgment will best facilitate its work.

Rule 1

Meetings of the Security Council shall, with the exception of the periodic meetings referred to in rule 4, be held at the call of the President at any time he deems necessary, but the interval between meetings shall not exceed fourteen days.

Rule 2

The President shall call a meeting of the Security Council at the request of any member of the Security Council.

Rule 3

The President shall call a meeting of the Security Council if a dispute or situation is brought to the attention of the Security Council under Article 35 or under Article 11 (3) of the Charter, or if the General Assembly makes recommendations or refers any question to the Security Council under Article 11 (2), or if the Secretary-General brings to the attention of the Security Council any matter under Article 99.

Rule 4

Periodic meetings of the Security Council called for in Article 28 (2) of the Charter shall be held twice a year, at such times as the Security Council may decide.

Rule 5

Meetings of the Security Council shall normally be held at the seat of the United Nations.

Any member of the Security Council or the Secretary-General may propose that the Security Council should meet at another place. Should the Security Council accept any such proposal, it shall decide upon the place, and the period during which the Council shall meet at such place.

Rule 48

Unless it decides otherwise, the Security Council shall meet in public. Any recommendation to the General Assembly regarding the appointment of the Secretary-General shall be discussed and decided at a private meeting.

Rule 49

Subject to the provisions of rule 51, the verbatim record of each meeting of the Security Council shall be made available to the representatives on the Security Council and to the representatives of any other States which have participated in the meeting not later than 10 a.m. of the first working day following the meeting.

Rule 50

The representatives of the States which have participated in the meeting shall, within two working days after the time indicated in rule 49, inform the Secretary-General of any corrections they wish to have made in the verbatim record.

Rule 51

The Security Council may decide that for a private meeting the record shall be made in a single copy alone. This record shall be kept by the Secretary-General. The representatives of the States which have participated in the meeting shall, within a period of ten days, inform the Secretary-General of any corrections they wish to have made in this record.

Rule 52

Corrections that have been requested shall be considered approved unless the President is of the opinion that they are sufficiently important to be submitted to the representatives on the Security Council. In the latter case, the representatives on the Security Council shall submit within two working days any comments they may wish to make. In the absence of objections in this period of time, the record shall be corrected as requested.

Rule 53

The verbatim record referred to in rule 49 or the record referred to in rule 51, in which no corrections have been requested in the period of time required by rules 50 and 51, respectively, or which has been corrected in accordance with the provisions of rule 52, shall be considered as approved. It shall be signed by the President and shall become the official record of the Security Council.

Rule 54

The official record of public meetings of the Security Council, as well as the documents annexed thereto, shall be published in the official languages as soon as possible.

Rule 55

At the close of each private meeting the Security Council shall issue a communiqué through the Secretary-General.

Rule 56

The representatives of the Members of the United Nations which have taken part in a private meeting shall at all times have the right to consult the record of that meeting in the office of the Secretary-General. The Security Council may at any time grant access to this record to authorized representatives of other Members of the United Nations.

Rule 57

The Secretary-General shall, once each year, submit to the Security Council a list of the records and documents which up to that time have been considered confidential. The Security Council shall decide which of these shall be made available to other Members of the United Nations, which shall be made public, and which shall continue to remain confidential.

This section comprises five subsections, namely: A. Meetings, concerning the convening of meetings pursuant to rules 1 to 5 as well as rule 48; B. Informal consultations of the whole; C. Other informal meetings of the members of the Security Council; D. Discussions concerning meetings; and E. Records, which are maintained pursuant to rules 49 to 57.

During the period under review, the Council held a total of 552 meetings, an increase of 9 per cent with respect to the previous biennium;<sup>8</sup> 256 meetings were held in 2016 and 296 in 2017. Most of the meetings were public; the Council held 19 private meetings in 2016, and 14 private meetings in 2017. The Council also held a total of 307 informal consultations of the whole; 170 consultations were held in 2016 and 137 were held in 2017.

In 2016 and 2017, Council members continued to hold informal interactive dialogues and Arria-formula meetings. The Council also continued to hold “wrap-up sessions” at the end of the month. While some wrap-up sessions were conducted as public meetings held under the item entitled “Implementation of the note by the President of the Security Council (S/2010/507)”,<sup>9</sup> the majority were held at informal meetings.<sup>10</sup> During 2016 and 2017, the question of the format of meetings was raised during an open debate concerning the working methods of the Council (see case 1).

<sup>8</sup> A total of 508 meetings were held in 2014–2015. A resumption of a meeting is not counted as a separate meeting. For more information on meetings held in the previous biennium, see Repertoire, Supplement 2014–2015, part II.

<sup>10</sup> Some of the informal sessions were held as “Toledo style informal wrap-up sessions”, also known as “Toledo interactive briefings”. Toledo interactive briefings were launched in 2015, at the initiative of Spain, by members of the Council willing to present the activity of the Council for the month jointly, and in an interactive manner.

A. Meetings

1. Application of rules relating to meetings

During the period under review, there were no intervals exceeding 14 days between meetings of the Council, as provided under rule 1 of the provisional rules of procedure. The Council continued to convene more than one meeting a day, on certain occasions.

In 2016 and 2017, the Council did not hold any periodic meetings pursuant to rule 4 of the provisional rules of procedure or any meetings away from Headquarters in accordance with rule 5. On 20 September 2017, at the 8051st meeting of the Council, held under the item entitled “United Nations peacekeeping operations”, 7 of the 15 Council members were represented at the level of Head of State or Government,<sup>11</sup> and 7 were represented by high-level officials.<sup>12</sup> This was the highest number of Heads of State or Government representing Council members since the previous summit meeting, held on 24 September 2014 under the item entitled “Threats to international peace and security caused by terrorist acts”.<sup>13</sup>

During the reporting period, there were two communications from Member States requesting the Council to convene a meeting in which rule 2 of the provisional rules of procedure was cited explicitly as the basis for the request; no requests were received in which rule 3 was cited explicitly. There were also four communications in which Member States made explicit references to Article 35 of the Charter.<sup>14</sup> Table 1 lists the communications from Member States requesting a meeting of the Council in which rule 2 and/or Article 35 of the Charter was explicitly cited. During the period under review, there were also requests to convene meetings in which either rule 2 or 3, and/or Article 35, was cited implicitly. Table 2 lists communications in which an urgent or emergency meeting of the Council was requested without explicit reference to rule 2 or 3 and/or Articles 34 or 35 of the Charter.

<sup>11</sup> Egypt, Senegal and Ukraine were represented by their Presidents, and Ethiopia, Italy, Sweden and the United Kingdom were represented by their Prime Ministers.

<sup>12</sup> The United States was represented by the Vice-President, China, France, Japan, Kazakhstan and the Russian Federation were represented by Ministers for Foreign Affairs, and Uruguay was represented by the Deputy Minister for Political Affairs in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

<sup>14</sup> For more information on the application of Article 35 of the Charter during 2016 and 2017, see part VI, sect. I, “Referral of disputes or situations to the Security Council”.

Complaints raised by Member States concerning the application of rule 3

During the period under review, the Democratic People's Republic of Korea raised complaints about the non-convening of a meeting of the Security Council despite the requests submitted. In a letter dated 4 April 2016, the representative of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea transmitted remarks made by a spokesman for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs on 2 April, deploring the disregard by the Council of a request to "convene an urgent meeting" in connection with the joint military drills of the United States and the Republic of Korea.<sup>15</sup>

In a letter dated 22 March 2017 to the Secretary-General,<sup>16</sup> the representative of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea called attention to the request, contained in a letter dated 6 March 2017 to the President of the Security Council,<sup>17</sup> to hold an emergency meeting which, he noted, had received "no response at all". On 15 December 2017, at the 8137th meeting of the Council, the representative of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea deplored the fact that the Council had ignored repeated requests to raise and discuss urgently the "aggressive" United States-Republic of Korea joint military exercises.<sup>18</sup>

2. Format

Public meetings

The Council continued to convene meetings in public as provided for in rule 48 of the provisional rules of procedure, mainly for the purposes of (a) receiving briefings on country-specific or regional situations, or thematic issues, under its consideration; (b) holding debates on particular items; and (c) adopting decisions.<sup>19</sup> During the period under review, the Council held a total of 519 public meetings: 237 in 2016 and 282 in 2017, an increase of 11 per cent in comparison with the 2014–2015 biennium, during

<sup>18</sup> See S/PV.8137, p. 22. This was the first time that the Democratic People's Republic of Korea had participated, in accordance with rule 37 of the provisional rules of procedure, in a meeting convened under the item entitled "Non-proliferation/Democratic People's Republic of Korea", first considered by the Security Council on 14 October 2006 (see S/PV.5551). For more information on this meeting, see part I, sect. 37.C, "Non-proliferation/Democratic People's Republic of Korea".

<sup>19</sup> In the note by the President dated 30 August 2017 (S/2017/507, annex, para. 21), Council members expressed their intention to continue to include the following formats for public meetings: open debate, debate, briefing and adoption.

which the Council held a total of 469 public meetings.<sup>20</sup>

During the review period, the Council held 33 high-level meetings at which two or more Council members were represented at the ministerial or higher levels,<sup>21</sup> 27 on thematic items, and 6 on regional and country-specific items (see table 3). During 2016 and 2017, the Council held five meetings at which more than half of the Council members were represented at the ministerial or higher levels; those meetings were held in connection with the situation in the Middle East, threats to international peace and security caused by terrorist acts, United Nations peacekeeping operations, and non-proliferation of weapons of mass destruction; and two meetings at which at least a third of the Council members were represented at the Head of State or Government level, and which concerned the situation in the Middle East and United Nations peacekeeping operations.

<sup>20</sup> For more information on meetings held in the previous biennium, see Repertoire, Supplement 2014–2015, part II.

<sup>21</sup> In previous volumes of the Repertoire, meetings at which five or more Council members were represented at the ministerial or higher levels were described as high-level meetings. In the present Supplement, those meetings at which two or more Council members were represented at the ministerial or higher levels are recorded as high-level meetings to reflect the importance attributed to those meetings in contemporary practice.

Private meetings

During the period under review, the Council continued to hold meetings in private, in accordance with rule 48 of the provisional rules of procedure. Private meetings continued to constitute a small percentage, approximately 6 per cent, of all Council meetings, 33 of a total 552 meetings held in 2016 and 2017. The Council held 19 private meetings in 2016 and 14 in 2017. Figure II shows the percentage of public and private meetings during the period concerned.

Public and private meetings, 2016–2017

Thirty (91 per cent) of the 33 private meetings held in 2016 and 2017 were meetings with troop- and police-contributing countries held under the item entitled “Meeting of the Security Council with the troop- and police-contributing countries pursuant to resolution 1353 \(2001\), annex II, sections A and B”; two meetings (6 per cent) consisted of briefings by the President of the International Court of Justice; and one meeting (3 per cent) was held to vote on the appointment of the new Secretary-General, under the standing item entitled “Recommendation for the appointment of the Secretary-General of the United Nations”.<sup>22</sup> Figure III shows the breakdown of private meetings by type as described above, and table 4 provides information on all private meetings held by the Council during the period under review, by item and in chronological order.

<sup>22</sup> For more information on the deliberations on the procedure for the appointment of the Secretary-General during 2016 and 2017, see part IV, sect. I.D.

B. Informal consultations of the whole

Informal consultations of the whole are not official meetings of the Council. The members gather in private for the purpose of holding discussions and receiving briefings from the Secretariat and representatives of the Secretary-General. These meetings are not held in the Security Council Chamber.

During the period under review, members of the Council continued to meet often in informal consultations of the whole: 170 times in 2016 and 137 times in 2017 (see figure I). Frequently, informal consultations of the whole were held immediately after public meetings of the Council.

Pursuant to the Council's established practice, no official records of informal consultations were issued, and non-members were not invited. On several occasions, however, statements to the press were issued or elements to the press were read out by the President of the Council following informal consultations.<sup>23</sup> In the note by the President dated 30 August 2017, Council members encouraged the President of the Council, with the assistance of the Secretariat, to promote additional appropriate measures to increase interactivity and a more efficient use of time during informal consultations of the whole. The members encouraged the holding of informal consultations on two issues at a three-hour Council meeting, notably with regard to situations routinely on its agenda, and recommended that Council members and the Secretariat should continue to use the “Other matters” item during informal consultations to raise issues of concern. In order to make consultations result-oriented as well as to increase the transparency of the work of the Security Council while securing confidentiality, the members encouraged the President of the Council to make efforts, whenever appropriate, to suggest, at the end of consultations, general lines or elements to be used when providing briefings to the press.<sup>24</sup>

C. Other informal meetings of the members of the Security Council

During the period under review, the Council continued to hold informal interactive dialogues and Arria-formula meetings.<sup>25</sup> In practice, informal interactive dialogues are convened with the participation of all Council members, while Arria-formula meetings are convened with the participation of all or some Council members. Informal interactive dialogues and Arria-formula meetings are convened at the initiative of one or more members of the Council. Informal interactive dialogues are presided by the President of the Security Council for the month, Arria-formula meetings are not. Frequently, the member or members convening the Arria-formula meeting also chairs the meeting. Neither of the two types of meeting is considered a meeting of the Council; neither type of meeting is announced in the Journal of the United Nations or in the Council’s programme of work and no official records are prepared. Invitees to informal interactive dialogues and Arria-formula meetings include Member States, relevant organizations and individuals. In past practice Arria-formula meetings were closed to the public; in recent practice, these meetings have been open to the public or even broadcast.<sup>26</sup> Informal interactive dialogues are not open to the public or broadcast.

Informal interactive dialogues

During the reporting period, the Council held 11 informal interactive dialogues, four in 2016 and seven in 2017.<sup>27</sup> According to the note by the President dated 30 August 2017, the Council, “when it deems appropriate”, may utilize informal dialogues to seek the views of Member States that are parties to a conflict and/or other interested and affected parties.<sup>28</sup> Seven of the 11 informal interactive dialogues held in 2016 and 2017 concerned country-specific or regional situations, as shown in table 5.

<sup>23</sup> Not all statements to the press were issued as a result of informal consultations. For a complete list of statements issued during the review period, see www.un.org/en/sc/documents/press/2016.shtml and www.un.org/en/sc/documents/press/2017.shtml.

<sup>25</sup> For more information on informal interactive dialogues and Arria-formula meetings, see S/2017/507, annex, paras. 92, 95 and 97–99.

<sup>26</sup> Two of the 12 Arria-formula meetings held in 2016 were broadcast; and two of the 17 Arria-formula meetings held in 2017 were broadcast.

Arria-formula meetings

As provided for in the note by the President dated 30 August 2017, Arria-formula meetings are utilized by members of the Council as “a flexible and informal forum” for enhancing their deliberations and their contact with civil society and non-governmental organizations.<sup>29</sup> According to that note, Council members may invite, on an informal basis, any Member State, relevant organization or individual to participate in Arria-formula meetings. During the period under review, the Council held a total of 29 such meetings, 12 in 2016 and 17 in 2017. Arria-formula meetings held during the period under review are listed in table 6.

Other informal meetings

During the period under review, the Council held several informal meetings of an ad hoc nature. Following the practice started in 2007, meetings were held with the Peace and Security Council of the African Union.<sup>30</sup> In this connection, and in accordance with the note by the President dated 30 August 2017, the members of the Council acknowledged the importance of annual joint consultative meetings and informal dialogues with the members of the Peace and Security Council of the African Union, to exchange views on ways to strengthen cooperation and partnership.<sup>31</sup>

<sup>30</sup> The meetings were held on 23 May 2016 in New York and on 8 September 2017 at Addis Ababa (see S/2017/248 and S/2017/1002). For information on prior practice concerning the informal joint meetings of the Security Council and the Peace and Security Council of the African Union, see Repertoire, Supplement 2008–2009, Supplement 2010–2011, Supplement 2012–2013 and Supplement 2014–2015, part II, sect. <sup>31</sup> See S/2017/507, annex, para. 97. In the note the Security Council also underscored the importance of increased coordination, cooperation and interaction with other relevant bodies including regional organizations, among them the African Union (para. 93); and the members of the Council agreed to consider joint missions of the Security Council and the Peace and Security Council of the African Union to conflict situations in Africa (para. 122). #### D. Discussions concerning meetings

Questions pertaining to the meetings of the Council and to other forms of informal gatherings of members of the Council were discussed during the open debate on the working methods of the Council on 19 July 2016, under the item entitled “Implementation of the note by the President of the Security Council (S/2010/507)” (see case 1).

Case 1

Implementation of the note by the President of the Security Council (S/2010/507)

During the open debate on the working methods of the Security Council, held at the 7740th meeting on 19 July 2016, a number of speakers discussed aspects of the meetings and informal meetings of members of the Council, including their format. Several speakers welcomed and expressed support for the practice of holding wrap-up sessions at the end of the monthly presidency of the Council.<sup>32</sup> The representatives of Hungary, Germany and Kazakhstan maintained that the Council should hold more wrap-up sessions,<sup>33</sup> and the representative of Guatemala regretted the increasingly rare wrap-up sessions. While expressing support for the informal briefings convened at the end of month by the presidency, the representative of Chile opined that informal briefings should not replace the formal wrap-up sessions but rather reinforce and complement them. He stressed that informal briefings were primarily an instrument for accountability of each presidency, while formal wrap-up sessions were a “collective and public work of the Council as a whole”.<sup>34</sup> Council members referred also to “Toledo style informal wrap-up sessions”, also known as “Toledo interactive briefings”.<sup>35</sup> The representative of France welcomed the practice of holding monthly wrap-up sessions in an open format in the Council Chamber, or in an interactive Toledo format.<sup>36</sup> The representative of Spain said that Toledo briefings had been held with some regularity at the end of each presidency since October 2015, and emphasized that the Toledo format was more than a mere recapitulation of the work of the Council over a given month, but rather an informal meeting at which a group of Permanent Representatives could respond to questions and comments from the membership about what had been achieved during the month.<sup>37</sup> The representative of Italy called for more frequent informal, Toledo-style wrap-up sessions, which allowed “greater interaction” with the membership of the United Nations on the work of the month. He noted that the attendance and interaction achieved at those meetings were a sign of their popularity and usefulness to non-members of the Council.<sup>38</sup>

The representative of the Islamic Republic of Iran, speaking on behalf of the Non-Aligned Movement, and the representative of Cuba argued that closed meetings and informal consultations should be kept to a minimum and should be the exception rather than the rule.<sup>39</sup> The representative of Uruguay stated that open meetings should be the norm, and the representative of Colombia noted that it was increasingly necessary to move away from the practice of closed meetings and to hold open or public meetings more frequently, so that non-members could contribute to the deliberations of the Council.<sup>40</sup> Similarly, the representatives of Hungary and Kazakhstan emphasized that the Council should increase the number of its public meetings, interactive briefings, and informal interactive dialogues, and the representative of Portugal suggested that, at briefings, following the briefers’ public statements, Council members should publicly express their views.<sup>41</sup> The representative of Norway expressed the view that the work of the Council should become “more accessible”, and encouraged it to put in place new measures to enable the membership to be effectively informed about the topics discussed under “Any other business” during closed consultations.<sup>42</sup> In the same vein, the representative of Panama argued that there was an urgent need for “improved and greater access” to the Council’s information and decision-making process, an increase in the frequency of consultations, open briefings and Arria-formula meetings and, thereby, greater interaction and coordination with the General Assembly.<sup>43</sup> The representative of Australia, while recalling that pursuant to Article 24 of the Charter the Council had the responsibility to act on behalf of the United Nations membership as a whole, suggested that Council members should engage regularly with the broader membership through briefings with regional groups and outreach to affected countries.<sup>44</sup>

The representative of Italy called for more effective use of open meetings, such as informal interactive dialogues and Arria-formula meetings, and for continuing to increase the focus and interactivity of open debates, involving, as appropriate, non-governmental actors, especially from civil society.<sup>45</sup> Several speakers encouraged the holding of more Arria-formula meetings,<sup>46</sup> while, with regard to informal dialogues, the representative of Egypt stated that the Council should build upon those held in 2016 with the African Union Peace and Security Council by advancing more frequent and timely consultations, as well as collaborative field missions with it.<sup>47</sup>

Concerning conflict prevention and early-warning mechanisms, some speakers called for reinstating the practice of horizon-scanning briefings on potential emerging conflicts.<sup>48</sup>

E. Records

During the period under review, verbatim records were issued following each public meeting of the Council, in accordance with rule 49 of the provisional rules of procedure, and communiqués were issued following private meetings, in accordance with rule 55. No questions were raised at Council meetings regarding the application of rules 49 to 57 in connection with the preparation, access to and issuance of verbatim records, communiqués or other documents.

II. Agenda

Note

Section II deals with the practice of the Security Council concerning the agenda, in relation to rules 6 to 12 of the provisional rules of procedure of the Security Council.

Rule 6

The Secretary-General shall immediately bring to the attention of all representatives on the Security Council all communications from States, organs of the United Nations, or the Secretary-General concerning any matter for the consideration of the Security Council in accordance with the provisions of the Charter.

Rule 7

The provisional agenda for each meeting of the Security Council shall be drawn up by the Secretary-General and approved by the President of the Security Council.

Only items which have been brought to the attention of the representatives on the Security Council in accordance with rule 6, items covered by rule 10, or matters which the Security Council had previously decided to defer, may be included in the provisional agenda.

Rule 8

The provisional agenda for a meeting shall be communicated by the Secretary-General to the representatives on the Security Council at least three days before the meeting, but in urgent circumstances it may be communicated simultaneously with the notice of the meeting.

Rule 9

The first item of the provisional agenda for each meeting of the Security Council shall be the adoption of the agenda.

Rule 10

Any item of the agenda of a meeting of the Security Council, consideration of which has not been completed at that meeting, shall, unless the Security Council otherwise decides, automatically be included in the agenda of the next meeting.

Rule 11

The Secretary-General shall communicate each week to the representatives on the Security Council a summary statement of matters of which the Security Council is seized and of the stage reached in their consideration.

Rule 12

The provisional agenda for each periodic meeting shall be circulated to the members of the Security Council at least twenty-one days before the opening of the meeting. Any subsequent change in or addition to the provisional agenda shall be brought to the notice of the members at least five days before the meeting. The Security Council may, however, in urgent circumstances, make additions to the Agenda at any time during a periodic meeting.

The provisions of rule 7, paragraph 1, and of rule 9, shall apply also to periodic meetings.

During the period under review, the Secretary-General continued the practice of distributing communications from States, organs of the United Nations, or from himself concerning any matter for the consideration of the Council in accordance with the provisions of the Charter and pursuant to rule 6 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure. The Secretary-General also continued to draw up a provisional agenda for each meeting of the Council, and communicated the provisional agenda to the representatives on the Council, in accordance with rules 7 and 8. The practice relating to the circulation of communications or the preparation of the provisional agenda was not discussed or questioned during the period under review. No periodic meetings were held during 2016 or 2017, and hence rule 12 was not applied. This section therefore focuses on the practice and discussion regarding rules 9 to 11, under the following three main headings: A. Adoption of the agenda (rule 9); B. Matters of which the Security Council is seized (rules 10 and 11); C. Discussions concerning the agenda.

A. Adoption of the agenda (rule 9)

In accordance with rule 9 of the provisional rules of procedure, the first item of the agenda for each meeting of the Council is the adoption of the agenda.

Voting on the adoption of the agenda

During the period under review, objections were raised twice to the inclusion of the item entitled “The situation in the Democratic People’s Republic of Korea” in the agenda of the Council (see case 2). In both cases, the objections led to a procedural vote in the Council, which ultimately resulted in the adoption of the provisional agenda.<sup>49</sup>

Newly introduced agenda items

During the period under review, the Council included the item entitled “Identical letters dated 19 January 2016 from the Permanent Representative of Colombia to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General and the President of the Security Council (S/2016/53)” in the list of matters of which it was seized. The item was considered for the first time at the 7609th meeting of the Council, on 25 January 2016.<sup>50</sup>

From 1998 to 2007 the Council added between 8 and 23 new items every year, but since 2008 the number of new items introduced each year has decreased significantly. Figure IV provides information on the number of newly introduced items since 1998.

<sup>50</sup> See S/PV.7609. For more information on this item, see part I, sect. 17.

Number of newly introduced items per year, 1998–2017

Modification of agenda items

As set out in the note by the President of the Security Council dated 21 June 2016,<sup>51</sup> following consultations among Council members, the Council agreed that, as from 22 June 2016, issues pertaining to peacebuilding and post-conflict peacebuilding would be considered under the item entitled “Peacebuilding and sustaining peace”. The earlier consideration by the Council of those issues under the item entitled “Post-conflict peacebuilding” would be subsumed under the new item.

Consideration of country-specific situations under existing items of a regional nature

During the period under review, the Council continued the practice of using existing items of a regional nature for the consideration of evolving country-specific situations. For example, the Council continued to consider the situations in the Syrian Arab Republic and Yemen under the items entitled “The situation in the Middle East” and “The situation concerning the Middle East, including the Palestinian question”.<sup>52</sup> The Council also addressed the situation in the Gambia, following the presidential elections held there in 2016, under the item entitled “Peace consolidation in West Africa”.<sup>53</sup>

<sup>52</sup> For more information, see part I, sects. 24 and 25.

Inclusion of new sub-items under existing items

During the period under review, the Council continued its practice of adding new sub-items to existing items, for the consideration of evolving general and cross-border threats to international peace and security. Table 7 lists sub-items introduced in 2016 and 2017, in chronological order of their introduction.<sup>54</sup>

<sup>54</sup> The table does not include routine sub-items relating to briefings by Security Council missions, briefings by the Chairs of Security Council committees, letters addressed to the President of the Security Council, reports of the Secretary-General, and meetings of the Security Council with the troop- and police-contributing countries pursuant to resolution 1353 (2001), annex II, sections A and B.

B. Matters of which the Security Council is seized (rules 10 and 11)

During the period under review, pursuant to rule 11 of the provisional rules of procedure and the relevant notes by the President,<sup>55</sup> the Secretary-General continued to communicate each week to the representatives on the Council a summary statement of matters of which the Council was seized and of the stage reached in their consideration.<sup>56</sup> The practice of including an item in the summary statement upon its adoption at a formal meeting of the Council remained unchanged. On 25 January 2016, at its 7609th meeting, the Council adopted a new item, entitled “Identical letters dated 19 January 2016 from the Permanent Representative of Colombia to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General and the President of the Security Council (S/2016/53)”, which was subsequently included in the summary statement.<sup>57</sup>

According to the relevant notes by the President, the preliminary annual summary statement issued in January each year by the Secretary-General of matters of which the Council is seized identifies the items which have not been considered in the preceding three years and are therefore subject to deletion. An item is deleted unless a Member State notifies the President of the Council, by the end of February, of its request that the item be retained on the list, in which case the item will remain on the list for an additional year. If no Member State requests the item’s retention on the list, the first summary statement issued in March of that year reflects its deletion.<sup>58</sup>

During the period under review, in accordance with rule 11 and the relevant notes by the President, the Council continued the practice of reviewing the summary statement at the beginning of each year in order to determine if the Council had concluded its consideration of any items. In 2016, of 16 items identified for deletion in January, only the item entitled “The situation in Timor-Leste” was deleted in March; the remaining 15 items were retained for one additional year at the request of Member States.<sup>59</sup> In 2017, 16 items were identified for deletion, including the item entitled “The situation between Iraq and Kuwait”, which had become subject to deletion that year, and all of them remained on the list (see table 8).<sup>60</sup>

During the period under review, the Council was seized of 68 items in both 2016 and 2017.<sup>61</sup>

<sup>55</sup> Prior to 30 August 2017, the note by the President dated 26 July 2010 (S/2010/507, annex, paras. 51 and 52); thereafter the note by the President dated 30 August 2017 (S/2017/507, annex, paras. 13 and 14).

Items considered at Security Council meetings

While it remained seized of 68 items during the review period, the Council considered during its meetings 49 items in 2016, and 52 in 2017. Of the 49 items considered in 2016 at meetings of the Council, 26 concerned country-specific and regional situations, and 23 thematic and other issues. Of the 52 items considered by the Council in 2017, 27 concerned country-specific and regional situations, and 25 concerned thematic and other issues. Table 9 provides an overview of the items considered at formal meetings of the Council during the period under review.

C. Discussions concerning the agenda

During the period under review, the discussions on the agenda of the Council occurred mainly in connection with country- or region-specific items and related to the adoption of the agenda and the frequency with which items were addressed by the Council at formal meetings (see cases 2 and 3).

Case 2

The situation in the Democratic People’s Republic of Korea

Having before it a letter dated 1 December 2016 from the representatives of France, Japan, Malaysia, New Zealand, Spain, Ukraine, the United Kingdom, the United States and Uruguay to the President of the Security Council,<sup>62</sup> the Council held its 7830th meeting on 9 December 2016 under the item entitled “The situation in the Democratic People’s Republic of Korea”. Prior to the adoption of the agenda for the meeting, the representative of China expressed his opposition to the Council’s discussing the situation of human rights in the Democratic People’s Republic of Korea, stressing that the Council was not a forum for discussing human rights issues, still less so for the “politicization of such issues”.<sup>63</sup> This position was shared by the representative of Angola, who expressed full support for the statement made by the representative of China.<sup>64</sup> The representative of the United States said that the “kinds of horrors” perpetrated by the regime in the Democratic People’s Republic of Korea were inherently destabilizing. Recalling the threat to international peace and security posed by the nuclear and ballistic missile programmes, she stressed that the situation in the Democratic People’s Republic of Korea was on the list of matters before the Council and that was “where it belonged”.<sup>65</sup> The representative of Japan opined that the reasons for the Council to hold a meeting on the situation in the Democratic People’s Republic of Korea persisted, given that there had been no tangible improvement in the human rights situation in that country since the publication in 2014 of the report of the commission of inquiry established by the Human Rights Council, and given the destabilizing impact on the region and the maintenance of international peace and security of the human rights violations perpetrated by the Democratic People’s Republic of Korea authorities.<sup>66</sup> Following that discussion, the provisional agenda was adopted by

<sup>62</sup> S/2016/1034. This item was included in the list of matters before the Council in 2014; see Repertoire, Supplement 2014–2015, part II, sect. II. For the meetings held in 2014 and 2015, see S/PV.7353 and S/PV.7575.

9 votes in favour to 5 against, with one abstention.<sup>67</sup> Speaking after the vote, the representative of the Russian Federation stated that his delegation had often opposed the inclusion of human rights issues in the agenda of the Council. He believed that such issues did not fall within the Council's purview and should be considered in specialized bodies. He argued that the Council should concentrate on issues that represented a true threat to international peace and security, and that "burdening" the Council's agenda with issues that were not within its remit inevitably weakened the Council's focus and force and undermined the effectiveness of its work.<sup>68</sup> The representative of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela added that the initiative showed the Council's "growing interference" in issues outside its specific competency.<sup>69</sup>

On 11 December 2017, having before it a letter dated 1 December 2017 from the representatives of France, Italy, Japan, Senegal, Sweden, Ukraine, the United Kingdom, the United States and Uruguay to the President of the Security Council,<sup>70</sup> the Council met to address again the item entitled "The situation in the Democratic People's Republic of Korea". In a situation similar to that of 2016, following statements by the representatives of China and the United States,<sup>71</sup> the provisional agenda was put to a vote and was adopted by 10 votes in favour to 3 against, with 2 abstentions.<sup>72</sup> All permanent members reiterated their positions on the matter.<sup>73</sup> Speaking after the vote, the representative of Egypt reiterated that the Council was not the "relevant international forum" to address internal affairs or human rights situations in countries, unless the matter concerned acts of genocide or ethnic cleansing, which had a direct impact on international peace and security.<sup>74</sup> Similarly, the representative of the Plurinational State of Bolivia underlined that the Charter of the United Nations stipulated unequivocally that the primary responsibility of the Security Council was the maintenance of international peace and security, and that issues pertaining to human rights did not fall under the competence of the Council.<sup>75</sup> In contrast, the representative of Uruguay stressed the close link between human rights violations and the rise of conflict and how those conflicts could turn into threats to international peace and security;<sup>76</sup> and the representative of Japan said that the Council should continue to address the situation.<sup>77</sup> The representative of Italy said that the "intimate link" between violations of human rights and the repercussions for the maintenance of international peace and security could not be denied, and that the matter fully fell within the scope and the mandate of the Security Council; while the representative of Ukraine expressed support for the Council's consideration of the topic, asserting that "systematic and consistent gross human rights violations" were a clear early-warning sign and indication of a credible threat to international peace and security, the maintenance of which was the primary responsibility of the Council.<sup>78</sup>

Case 3 Security Council resolutions 1160 (1998), 1199 (1998), 1203 (1998), 1239 (1999) and 1244 (1999)

During the period under review, as the Council addressed the item entitled "Security Council resolutions 1160 (1998), 1199 (1998), 1203 (1998), 1239 (1999) and 1244 (1999)" relating to the situation in Kosovo, Member States exchanged views on the approach to this question and the frequency with which it was discussed at Council meetings.<sup>79</sup> Their positions were reiterated at most of the meetings in which this item was considered.

At the 7760th meeting, held on 25 August 2016, the representative of the United Kingdom stated that the issue did not need to be on the Council's agenda; and the representative of New Zealand said that the Council should consider adopting a more flexible approach to how it considered the item, mindful of the many other issues of more immediate gravity that were before it.<sup>80</sup>

At the 7811th meeting, held on 16 November 2016, the representative of New Zealand reiterated her country's position on this issue; and the representative of Malaysia called for a reduction in the frequency of Council meetings held under this item.<sup>81</sup>

At the 7891st meeting, held on 27 February 2017, while expressing concern at the heightened tension between Serbia and Kosovo, the representative of the United Kingdom called for a reduction in the number of meetings and the number of reports, arguing that the Council contributed to the tensions in the region by holding so many meetings.<sup>82</sup> The representative of Kazakhstan, on the other hand, affirmed that the situation in Kosovo still needed the continuing attention of the Council as an ongoing item of its agenda; and the representative of Serbia highlighted the importance of convening regular quarterly meetings of the Council, at unchanged intervals, to discuss the item.<sup>83</sup>

At the 7940th meeting, held on 16 May 2017, the representative of Japan, referring to the Secretary-General's report, affirmed that it was long overdue for the Council to modify the reporting cycle that had been in place since 1999 and that a half-year cycle would be "more than sufficient".<sup>84</sup> The representative of the United Kingdom, also referring to that report, said that, since the period covered had been comparatively quiet, the Council's attention so soon after the last meeting was not warranted.<sup>85</sup>

III. Representation and credentials

Note

Section III covers the practice of the Council concerning representation and the credentials of its members, in relation to rules 13 to 17 of the provisional rules of procedure.

Rule 13

Each member of the Security Council shall be represented at the meetings of the Security Council by an accredited representative. The credentials of a representative on the Security Council shall be communicated to the Secretary-General not less than twenty-four hours before he takes his seat on the Security Council. The credentials shall be issued either by the Head of the State or of the Government concerned or by its Minister of Foreign Affairs. The Head of Government or Minister of Foreign Affairs of each member of the Security Council shall be entitled to sit on the Security Council without submitting credentials.

Rule 14

Any Member of the United Nations not a member of the Security Council and any State not a Member of the United Nations, if invited to participate in a meeting or meetings of the Security Council, shall submit credentials for the representative appointed by it for this purpose. The credentials of such a representative shall be communicated to the Secretary-General not less than twenty-four hours before the first meeting which he is invited to attend.

Rule 15

The credentials of representatives on the Security Council and of any representative appointed in accordance with rule 14 shall be examined by the Secretary-General who shall submit a report to the Security Council for approval.

Rule 16

Pending the approval of the credentials of a representative on the Security Council in accordance with rule 15, such representative shall be seated provisionally with the same rights as other representatives.

Rule 17

Any representative on the Security Council, to whose credentials objection has been made within the Security Council, shall continue to sit with the same rights as other representatives until the Security Council has decided the matter.

During the period under review, in accordance with rule 13 of the provisional rules of procedure, the credentials of the representatives of the members of the Security Council were communicated to the Secretary-General. The Secretary-General subsequently submitted his report to the Council pursuant to rule 15. Such reports were transmitted to the Council when there were changes in the representation of members of the Council,<sup>86</sup> as well as when representatives of the newly elected members of the Council were designated prior to the beginning of each term.<sup>87</sup> No discussions regarding the interpretation and application of rules 13 to 17 arose during the period under review.

<sup>87</sup> For the reports of the Secretary-General concerning the credentials of the representatives and deputies and alternate representatives of members of the Security Council elected for the periods 2016–2017 and 2017–2018, see S/2015/1017 and S/2016/507, respectively.

IV. Presidency

Note

Section IV covers the practice of the Council concerning the monthly rotation of the presidency, the role of the President, and the temporary cession of the chair by the President during the consideration of a particular question with which the Member State he or she represents is directly connected, in relation to rules 18 to 20 of the provisional rules of procedure.

Rule 18

The presidency of the Security Council shall be held in turn by the members of the Security Council in the English alphabetical order of their names. Each President shall hold office for one calendar month.

Rule 19

The President shall preside over the meetings of the Security Council and, under the authority of the Security Council, shall represent it in its capacity as an organ of the United Nations.

Rule 20

Whenever the President of the Security Council deems that for the proper fulfilment of the responsibilities of the presidency he should not preside over the Council during the consideration of a particular question with which the member he represents is directly connected, he shall indicate his decision to the Council. The presidential chair shall then devolve, for the purpose of the consideration of that question, on the representative of the member next in English alphabetical order, it being understood that the provisions of this rule shall apply to the representatives on the Security Council called upon successively to preside. This rule shall not affect the representative capacity of the President as stated in rule 19, or his duties under rule 7.

This section comprises two subsections, namely: A. The role of the President of the Security Council (rules 18 and 19); and, B. Discussions concerning the presidency of the Security Council. During the period covered, there were no instances of the application of rule 20.

A. Role of the President of the Security Council (rules 18 and 19)

In accordance with rule 18 of the provisional rules of procedure, the presidency of the Council was held in turn for one calendar month by the members of the Council in the English alphabetical order. In addition to presiding over meetings of the Council, informal consultations of the whole and informal interactive dialogues, the President of the Council continued to perform several functions under the authority of the Council, in accordance with rule 19. These functions included (a) briefing non-members of the Council and the media on the monthly programme of work of the Council at the beginning of the month; (b) representing the Council and delivering statements on its behalf, including the presentation of the annual report of the Council to the General Assembly;<sup>88</sup> and

<sup>88</sup> During the period under review, one annual report was submitted to the General Assembly, covering the period from 1 August 2015 to 31 December 2016. The 17-month period was a transitional arrangement and the period covered by all future reports would be 1 January to 31 December, instead of 1 August to 31 July (see the note by the President dated 10 December 2015 (S/2015/944)). At its 8021st meeting, on 9 August 2017 (see S/PV.8021), the Council adopted its report to the General Assembly (A/71/2). The report was introduced to the Assembly at

(c) delivering statements or elements to the press, following informal consultations of the whole or whenever Council members reached agreement on a text. Representatives of Council members continued to submit, in their national capacities, assessments providing information on the main aspects of the work of the Council during the month of their respective presidencies.<sup>89</sup>

Following previous practice, and in accordance with the notes by the President dated 26 July 2010 and 10 December 2015, the introduction to the annual report of the Council to the General Assembly for 2015/16 was prepared under the coordination of the President of the Council for the month of July 2016 (Japan),<sup>90</sup> who continued the practice of convening informal meetings with Member States to exchange views on the annual report, a practice initiated in 2008.

In 2016 and 2017, during their respective presidencies, Council members continued to take the initiative of bringing to the attention of the Council emerging general and cross-border threats to international peace and security,<sup>91</sup> at times adding new sub-items to existing thematic items with a view to informing the deliberations. In several such instances, to frame the discussion, a concept paper prepared by the monthly presidency was circulated prior to the meeting.<sup>92</sup> the 95th plenary meeting of its seventy-first session on 28 August 2017 by the President of the Council for the month of August (Egypt). See also part IV, sect. I.F, “Annual and special reports of the Security Council to the General Assembly”. The report of the Council for 2017 (A/72/2) was submitted to the General Assembly on 12 September 2018.

<sup>89</sup> See for example, S/2016/1119 and S/2017/390. A list of the monthly assessments for the period under review is provided in the annual reports of the Council to the General Assembly (A/71/2 and A/72/2).

<sup>90</sup> S/2010/507, annex, para. 71 (a); and S/2015/944, fourth paragraph. The note by the President dated 30 August 2017 retained the same language (S/2017/507, annex, paras. 125–139).

<sup>91</sup> For more information on the referral of disputes or situations to the Security Council by Member States, see part VI, sect. I.A.

<sup>92</sup> See, for example, letter dated 1 December 2016 from the representative of Spain to the Secretary-General (S/2016/1013), forwarding a concept note on the theme “Preventing catastrophe: a global agenda for stopping the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction by non-State actors”, prior to the 7837th meeting of the Council on 15 December 2016 (see S/PV.7837); letter dated 1 July 2016 from the representative of Japan to the Secretary-General (S/2016/585), circulating a concept note on the working methods of the Security Council prior to the 7740th meeting of the Council on 19 July

In the note by the President dated 30 August 2017, the incoming presidencies were encouraged to discuss the provisional monthly programme of work with other members of the Council well in advance of their respective presidencies.<sup>93</sup> The note also provided that Council members, during their respective presidencies, should ordinarily plan not more than four days per week of Council business, Fridays normally being reallocated to facilitate the work of the Council’s subsidiary bodies.<sup>94</sup> During the period under review, a complaint was raised in a communication to the Council regarding the role of the President. In a memorandum of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs annexed to a letter dated 22 November 2016 from the representative of the Democratic People’s Republic of Korea to the President of the Security Council, it was stated, inter alia, that the United States had put the human rights situation in the Democratic People’s Republic of Korea on the agenda of the Security Council on 10 December 2015, “abusing” its presidency of the Council.<sup>95</sup>

B. Discussions concerning the presidency of the Security Council

In 2016 and 2017, aspects of the presidency of the Security Council were discussed during Council meetings, particularly in the context of debates on the Council’s working methods under the item entitled “Implementation of the note by the President of the Security Council (S/2010/507)” (see case 4).

At the 7621st meeting, on 15 February 2016, the representative of Kazakhstan encouraged closer collaboration among the Presidents of the Security Council, the General Assembly and the Economic and Social Council, so as to create “a new global development strategy for peace”.<sup>96</sup> At the 7886th meeting, on 21 February 2017, the representative of Belarus noted that the President of the Security Council had failed to pay tribute to the deceased Permanent Representative of the Russian Federation, Ambassador Vitaly I. Churkin, with a 2016 (see S/PV.7740); and letter dated 3 February 2017 from the representative of Ukraine to the Secretary-General (S/2017/108), transmitting a concept note on the theme “Maintenance of international peace and security: conflicts in Europe”, prior to the 7886th meeting of the Council on 21 February 2017 (see S/PV.7886).

statement from the President, “as would have been appropriate”.<sup>97</sup>

Case 4

Implementation of the note by the President of the Security Council (S/2010/507)

At the 7616th meeting of the Council, held on 29 January 2016, the representative of the United Kingdom noted that the three most recent monthly presidencies of the Council had all held informal wrap-up sessions with Member States outside the Security Council Chamber, and said that those sessions had the same benefit as formal meetings in terms of transparency, but they had the “added benefit” of allowing interactivity.<sup>98</sup>

Similarly, at the 7740th meeting, on 19 July 2016, the representative of Mexico emphasized that the holding of monthly meetings by some Council members at the end of their presidency had “enabled the Council to increase the transparency” of its work, and added that it was imperative for more countries to adopt such an approach.<sup>99</sup> The representative of Colombia said that it was necessary to continue the “good practice” of publishing the monthly forecast by the Council presidency, keeping it updated, making it publicly available, modifying it whenever necessary, and distributing it to the members of the Council with the appropriate changes.<sup>100</sup> The representative of the United Kingdom, echoing France’s position with regard to the overloading of the programme of work,<sup>101</sup> suggested that instead of filling it on the basis of reporting cycles, incoming presidencies could set out the reports that were expected in the month and ask Council members if there was a need for a meeting.<sup>102</sup> The representative of Egypt stressed the need for practical and more meaningful partnerships with regional and subregional organizations, particularly the African Union. He asserted that the Council should hold more frequent and timely consultations, as well as collaborative field missions with the African Union, and he encouraged the Presidents of the Council to organize meetings that would promote such cooperation.<sup>103</sup>

At the 7703rd meeting, on 31 May 2016, on the topic of Security Council missions, the representative of the United Kingdom stated that the mission to Somalia, in May 2016, had reaffirmed that trips to countries on the agenda of the Council could have a positive and tangible influence, and he encouraged future presidencies to arrange more visits to such countries.<sup>104</sup> At the same meeting, the representative of Malaysia welcomed the proposal to involve newly elected members in the Council’s work as early as possible, and expressed support for the proposal that incoming members be fully consulted in the process of identifying new Chairs of subsidiary bodies and for the presidency to take a much larger role in that process. She stated that ideally the presidency should lead in a way that could introduce greater transparency and inclusiveness in the Council’s work.<sup>105</sup>

V. Secretariat

Note

Section V covers the practice of the Security Council concerning the functions and powers of the Secretary-General in connection with meetings of the Council, in relation to rules 21 to 26 of its provisional rules of procedure.

Rule 21

The Secretary-General shall act in that capacity in all meetings of the Security Council. The Secretary-General may authorize a deputy to act in his place at meetings of the Security Council.

Rule 22

The Secretary-General, or his deputy acting on his behalf, may make either oral or written statements to the Security Council concerning any question under consideration by it.

Rule 23

The Secretary-General may be appointed by the Security Council, in accordance with rule 28, as rapporteur for a specified question.

Rule 24

The Secretary-General shall provide the staff required by the Security Council. This staff shall form a part of the Secretariat.

Rule 25

The Secretary-General shall give to representatives on the Security Council notice of meetings of the Security Council and of its commissions and committees.

Rule 26

The Secretary-General shall be responsible for the preparation of documents required by the Security Council and shall, except in urgent circumstances, distribute them at least forty-eight hours in advance of the meeting at which they are to be considered.

During the period under review, the Secretary-General and senior officials of the Secretariat continued to attend Council meetings and to provide briefings to the Council, as requested. Council members also continued to request briefings by senior officials from the Secretariat. For example, in letters addressed to the President of the Security Council dated 1 December 2016 and 1 December 2017, respectively, Council members requested that a senior official from the Secretariat and a senior official from the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights brief the Council on the situation in the Democratic People's Republic of Korea to allow Council members to receive further information from the Secretariat on that situation and its implications for international peace and security.<sup>106</sup>

Under the item entitled “United Nations peacekeeping operations”, at the 7918th meeting, held on 6 April 2017, the representative of Sweden stated that the Council must be supported in its work and receive input from the Secretary-General with reliable, high-quality conflict analysis, prepared jointly by the whole of the United Nations system, and noted that the briefings by the Secretariat should give more comprehensive overviews of a situation, so as to enable the Council to make better-informed decisions.<sup>107</sup>

At the 7926th meeting, held on 18 April 2017 in connection with human rights and prevention of armed conflict under the item entitled “Maintenance of international peace and security”, the representative of Sweden stated that briefings to the Council by the Secretariat should always include human rights as part of broader conflict analysis, drawing on the whole of the United Nations system to support the Council's decision-making.<sup>108</sup>

Other aspects of briefings by the Secretariat were discussed in detail under the item entitled “Implementation of the note by the President of the Security Council (S/2010/507)”, as illustrated in case 5.

Case 5

Implementation of the note by the President of the Security Council (S/2010/507)

At its 7740th meeting, on 19 July 2017, the Council held an open debate on its working methods, under the item entitled “Implementation of the note by the President of the Security Council (S/2010/507)”. The representative of Australia stated that the Council must become better at predicting and preventing the escalation or relapse into conflict, and emphasized that frank, timely and independent assessments from the Secretariat on situations where populations were at risk were crucial to that. She added that briefings by the Secretary-General's Special Advisers on the Prevention of Genocide and on the Responsibility to Protect were valuable in ensuring that the Council was well placed to prevent mass atrocities.<sup>109</sup>

At the 7892nd meeting, on 28 February 2017, the Council held a formal wrap-up session under the same item and addressed the work of the month. The representative of Uruguay stressed the importance of having as much information as possible from the Secretariat during closed consultations, including illustrative documents, such as detailed maps. He said that it was also necessary for Council members to be able to obtain from the Secretariat the required documentation before those meetings, asserting that it was totally unacceptable for the Secretariat to deny access to indispensable documentation.<sup>110</sup> The representative of the Plurinational State of Bolivia also voiced concern over the lack of transparency of the Secretariat, claiming that in several instances access to some documentation had not been allowed; he said that ensuring that all information was available to all Council members was essential to their ability, as equal members, to make decisions.<sup>111</sup>

2016, in which the Secretariat was requested to announce all meetings and provisional agendas of the subsidiary organs of the Council to the public, in the Journal of the United Nations and on the websites of the subsidiary organs.<sup>112</sup> The support given by the Secretariat to incoming Chairs of subsidiary organs was acknowledged, and the Secretariat was requested to consider further measures to provide incoming Chairs and their staffs with additional substantive and methodological briefings on the work of relevant subsidiary organs of the Council.<sup>113</sup> These provisions were reproduced in the note by the President dated 30 August 2017.<sup>114</sup>

In the note by the President dated 15 July 2016, the newly elected members of the Council were invited to observe all meetings of the Council and its subsidiary organs and the informal consultations of the whole for a period of three months, as from 1 October immediately preceding their term of membership; and the Secretariat was invited to provide all relevant communications of the Council to the newly elected members during that period.<sup>115</sup> By the same note the Council invited the Secretariat to continue to take appropriate measures to familiarize the newly elected members with the work of the Council and its subsidiary organs, including by providing briefing materials and holding seminars before they began to attend Council meetings.<sup>116</sup> These provisions were reproduced in the note by the President dated 30 August 2017.<sup>117</sup>

In the note by the President dated 15 July 2016, the language of the note by the President dated 5 June 2014<sup>118</sup> was further developed, and the Chairs of the subsidiary organs were encouraged, with the assistance of the Secretariat, to provide those members of the Council that would take over the chairmanships with written and oral briefings about the work done during the outgoing chairmanship and to maintain informal meetings with the incoming Chairs, as necessary, including with the assistance of the Secretariat.<sup>119</sup> The Secretariat was also requested to consider further measures to provide incoming Chairs and their staffs with additional substantive and methodological briefings on the work of relevant subsidiary organs.<sup>120</sup> These provisions were reproduced in the note by the President dated 30 August 2017.<sup>121</sup>

VI. Conduct of business

Note

Section VI covers the practice of the Council concerning the conduct of business at its meetings, in relation to rules 27, 29, 30 and 33 of its provisional rules of procedure.

Rule 27

The President shall call upon representatives in the order in which they signify their desire to speak.

Rule 29

The President may accord precedence to any rapporteur appointed by the Security Council.

The Chairman of a commission or committee, or the rapporteur appointed by the commission or committee to present its report, may be accorded precedence for the purpose of explaining the report.

Rule 30

If a representative raises a point of order, the President shall immediately state his ruling. If it is challenged, the President shall submit his ruling to the Security Council for immediate decision and it shall stand unless overruled.

Rule 33

The following motions shall have precedence in the order named over all principal motions and draft resolutions relative to the subject before the meeting:

1. To suspend the meeting;
2. To adjourn the meeting;
3. To adjourn the meeting to a certain day or hour;
4. To refer any matter to a committee, to the Secretary-General or to a rapporteur;

5. To postpone discussion of the question to a certain day or indefinitely; or

6. To introduce an amendment.

Any motion for the suspension or for the simple adjournment of the meeting shall be decided without debate.

During 2016 and 2017 no explicit reference was made to rules 27, 29 and 30; rule 33 was explicitly referred to once during the Council's deliberations. At the 8073rd meeting, on 24 October 2017, under the item entitled "The situation in the Middle East", the representative of the Russian Federation proposed that the meeting be adjourned until 7 November 2017, in accordance with rule 33.3 of the provisional rules of procedure.<sup>122</sup> The procedural motion was put to a vote by the President of the Council: the result of the voting was 4 votes in favour, 8 against and 3 abstentions, and the proposal was not adopted, having failed to obtain the required number of votes.<sup>123</sup>

During the period under review, the President of the Council routinely requested speakers to limit their statements to four minutes,<sup>124</sup> or, less frequently, to five minutes.<sup>125</sup> On one occasion, the President of the Council reminded the invitees to limit their statements to no more than 10 minutes.<sup>126</sup> Frequently, the President also requested delegations with lengthy statements to circulate their texts in writing and to deliver a condensed version when speaking in the Chamber.<sup>127</sup> At the request of the President, delegations frequently delivered a shortened version of the statement and subsequently circulated the full text in writing, or made it available online.<sup>128</sup> Occasionally, speakers delivered condensed versions of their statements without a request from the President.<sup>129</sup>

Following an established practice, during the period under review joint statements were delivered by both Council members and other Member States who had been invited to participate in Council meetings.<sup>130</sup> Joint statements were delivered also by Council members in line with the so-called "Toledo formula" by which a Council member delivers a statement on behalf of itself and one or more other Member States.<sup>131</sup>

Regarding the speaking order, the note by the President dated 30 August 2017<sup>132</sup> reproduced the provisions of the note by the President dated 15 October 2014,<sup>133</sup> and reflected past and current practice. The note dated 30 August 2017 provides that the speaking order for meetings of the Council as a general practice is established by a draw, or, in certain cases, by the use of a sign-up sheet. The President of the Council as a general practice delivers his or her subsequently circulated the full text (S/PV.7610, p. 36).

At the 7980th meeting on 21 June 2017, under the item entitled "The situation in Afghanistan", the representative of the European Union read a shortened version of her statement and subsequently distributed the full text (S/PV.7980, p. 30).

<sup>130</sup> For example, at the 7629th meeting, on 23 February 2016, under the item entitled "Post-conflict peacebuilding", the representative of Egypt delivered a joint statement on behalf of the delegations of Egypt, Spain and Ukraine (S/PV.7629, p. 7); and at the 7740th meeting, on 19 July 2016, under the item entitled "Implementation of the note by the President of the Security Council (S/2010/507)", the representative of Egypt delivered a joint statement on behalf of the three African members of the Security Council, Angola, Egypt and Senegal (S/PV.7740, p. 3). At the 7651st meeting, on 17 March 2016, under the item entitled "The question concerning Haiti", the representative of Peru delivered a joint statement on behalf of the Group of Friends of Haiti (S/PV.7651, p. 23). For more information and examples of statements delivered by Member States on behalf of regional or international organizations, or groups of States, see sect. VII.A below.

<sup>131</sup> For example, at the 7816th meeting, on 18 November 2016, under the item entitled "Cooperation between the United Nations and regional and subregional organizations in maintaining international peace and security", the representative of Spain stated that Spain and the United Kingdom were participating jointly under the so-called Toledo formula, and that Spain aligned itself with the statement to be delivered by the representative of the United Kingdom (S/PV.7816, p. 20). At the 7638th meeting, on 2 March 2016, under the item entitled "Non-proliferation/Democratic People's Republic of Korea", the representative of Uruguay referred to the Toledo formula in order not to repeat what had been said by other Council members (S/PV.7638, p. 13).

<sup>129</sup> For example, at the 7610th meeting on 26 January 2016, under the item entitled "The situation in the Middle East, including the Palestinian question", the representative of India delivered a shortened version of his statement and national statement last of all Council members; in certain cases, the President may make his or her national statement before the other members take the floor.<sup>134</sup> In certain cases, the President of the Council may adjust the list of speakers and inscribe first the delegation(s) responsible for the drafting process in order to allow it or them to make an introductory or explanatory presentation.<sup>135</sup> When an unscheduled or emergency meeting is convened, the President may adjust the list of speakers so that the delegation having requested the meeting can speak before other Council members in order to present the rationale for convening the meeting.<sup>136</sup> The President of the Council may inscribe first the Chairs of the subsidiary bodies of the Council when they present their work, as occurred on several occasions during the period under review.<sup>137</sup> According to established practice, the list of speakers was adjusted according to protocol when high-level officials were representing Council members at a meeting.<sup>138</sup> During 2016 and 2017, non-members of the Council having a direct interest in the matter under consideration spoke before Council members,<sup>139</sup> consistent with prior practice and the relevant notes by the President.<sup>140</sup>

By the note by the President dated 30 August 2017, the Council affirmed its understanding that open debates can benefit from the contributions of both Council members and the wider membership, expressed its commitment to continue to take steps to improve the focus and interactivity of its open debates, and acknowledged the usefulness of concept notes to help to focus the discussion.<sup>141</sup>

During the period under review, Council members continued the practice of circulating concept notes prior to open debates; the concept notes were frequently annexed to letters addressed to the <sup>134</sup> For example, at the 8144th meeting, held on 20 December 2017 under the item entitled “Maintenance of international peace and security”, the representative of Japan and President of the Council for the month took the floor after the briefing by the Secretary-General and delivered a single statement comprising introductory remarks and his national statement before the other members took the floor (S/PV.8144, pp. 3–5).

<sup>135</sup> For example, at the 8139th meeting, held on 18 December 2017 under the item entitled “The situation in the Middle East, including the Palestinian question”, the representative of Egypt, who had submitted the draft resolution before the Council (S/2017/1060), took the floor before other Council members and made an introductory presentation (S/PV.8139, pp. 2–3).

<sup>136</sup> For example, at the 7777th meeting, held on 25 September 2016 under the item entitled “The situation in the Middle East”, the representatives of the United States, France and the United Kingdom, who had convened the meeting, delivered statements before other Council members (S/PV.7777, pp. 5–10).

<sup>137</sup> For example, at the 7884th meeting, held on 15 February 2017 under the item entitled “The situation in the Central African Republic”, the representative of Ukraine spoke before other Council members and briefed the Council in his capacity as Chair of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 2127 \(2013\) concerning the Central African Republic (S/PV.7884, pp. 6–9).

<sup>138</sup> For example, at the 7882nd meeting, held on 13 February 2017 under the item entitled “Threats to international peace and security caused by terrorist acts”, Ukraine (President of the Council) was represented by its Minister for Foreign Affairs, Italy was represented by its Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation and Kazakhstan was represented by the Deputy Secretary of the Security Council of Kazakhstan, and those representatives took the floor after the briefers but before other Council members (S/PV.7882, pp. 10–13). At the 7938th meeting, held on 15 May 2017 under the item entitled “Women and peace and security”, Uruguay (President of the Council) was represented by its Vice-Minister for Foreign Affairs and Sweden was represented by its Minister of Defence, and both representatives took the floor after the briefers but before other Council members (S/PV.7938, pp. 8–11). For more information on high-level meetings, see sect. I above.

<sup>139</sup> For example, at the 7673rd meeting, on 18 April 2016, and at the 7929th meeting, on 20 April 2017, both held under the item entitled “The situation in the Middle East, including the Palestinian question”, the representative of Israel, who was invited under rule 37 of the provisional rules of procedure, and the Permanent Observer of the State of Palestine, who was invited under rule 39, both took the floor before Council members, in accordance with established practice (S/PV.7673, pp. 4–9; and S/PV.7929, pp. 5–10). At the 7722nd meeting, held on 21 June 2016 under the item entitled “The situation in Afghanistan”, the representative of Afghanistan, who was invited under rule 37, spoke after the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Afghanistan and Head of the United Nations Assistance Mission in Afghanistan, who was invited under rule 39, but before Council members, in accordance with established practice (S/PV.7722, pp. 4–7). At the 8080th meeting, held on 30 October 2017 under the item entitled “Peace and security in Africa”, the representative of Mali (Minister for Foreign Affairs, International Cooperation and African Integration), who was invited under rule 37, spoke after the Secretary-General but before Council members (S/PV.8080, pp. 3–6). The Council continued to use videoconferencing at its meetings, a practice that has become increasingly prevalent since its introduction in 2009.<sup>143</sup> In 2016 and

2017, Council members were briefed via videoconferencing at meetings and consultations more than 70 times each year, the number decreasing from 101 in 2014, the peak year, to 73 in 2017. The frequency of use of videoconferencing remained high compared with years prior to 2014, as shown in figure V.<sup>144</sup>

VII. Participation

Note

Section VII covers the practice of the Council concerning the extension of invitations to non-members of the Council to participate in meetings of the Council. Articles 31 and 32 of the Charter of the United Nations and rules 37 and 39 of the provisional rules of procedure describe circumstances in which invitations can be extended to non-members of the Council to participate, without vote, when the Council so decides.

Article 31

Any Member of the United Nations which is not a member of the Security Council may participate, without vote, in the discussion of any question brought before the Security Council whenever the latter considers that the interests of that Member are specially affected.

Article 32

Any Member of the United Nations which is not a member of the Security Council or any state which is not a Member of the United Nations, if it is a party to a dispute under consideration by the Security Council, shall be invited to participate, without vote, in the discussion relating to the dispute. The Security Council shall lay down such conditions as it deems just for the participation of a state which is not a Member of the United Nations.

Rule 37

Any Member of the United Nations which is not a member of the Security Council may be invited, as the result of a decision of the Security Council, to participate, without vote, in the discussion of any question brought before the Security Council when the Security Council considers that the interests of that Member are specially affected, or when a Member brings a matter to the attention of the Security Council in accordance with Article 35 (1) of the Charter.

Rule 39

The Security Council may invite members of the Secretariat or other persons, whom it considers competent for the purpose, to supply it with information or to give other assistance in examining matters within its competence.

During the period under review, the Council continued to invite non-members to participate in its meetings. The invitations were extended by the President at the beginning or during Council meetings either under the “relevant provisions” of the Charter without an explicit reference to a specific Article or rule, or under rule 37 or rule 39 of the provisional rules of procedure of the Council. Specifically, Member States continued to be invited under rule 37, while representatives of the Secretariat, other United Nations organs, specialized agencies, funds and programmes, regional and other intergovernmental organizations, or other invitees, including representatives of non-governmental organizations, were invited under rule 39. While Member States requested invitations in letters addressed to the President of the Council, in most cases these were not circulated as documents of the Council.<sup>145</sup>

During the period under review, in notes by the President, the Council reaffirmed the invitation to newly elected members to observe all meetings of the Council and extended the period from six weeks immediately preceding their term of membership to three months, as from 1 October.<sup>146</sup> Notwithstanding the foregoing, in exceptional circumstances, the Council will not invite the newly elected members to a specific private meeting of the Council or to specific informal consultations of the whole if a request to that effect was made by a member of the Council. The newly elected members will not be invited to the meetings of the Council or the informal consultations of the whole relating to the selection and appointment of the Secretary-General. The newly elected members may be invited to the monthly luncheon with the Secretary-General held in December immediately preceding their term of membership, at the discretion of the President of the Council for that month.<sup>147</sup>

This section is divided into four subsections, namely: A. Invitations extended under rule 37; B. Invitations extended under rule 39; C. Invitations not expressly extended under rule 37 or rule 39; and, D. Discussions relating to participation.

A. Invitations extended under rule 37

In accordance with the relevant Articles of the Charter and the provisional rules of procedure, all States, whether Members of the United Nations or not, can be invited to participate in Council meetings when (a) the interests of a Member State are “specially affected” (Article 31 of the Charter and rule 37); (b) a Member State or a non-Member State is a party to a dispute under consideration by the Council (Article 32 of the Charter); and (c) a Member State brings a matter to the attention of the Council in accordance with Article 35 (1) of the Charter (rule 37).<sup>148</sup>

During the period under review, there were no changes to the procedure for extending invitations to Member States to participate in the proceedings of the Council. Member States invited under rule 37, in accordance with previous practice, continued to speak occasionally in other capacities, for example on behalf of international or regional organizations, or groups of States, by delivering joint statements.<sup>149</sup> There was,

<sup>149</sup> For example, the representative of Kuwait, at the 7621st meeting, on 15 February 2016, and the representative of Uzbekistan, at the 7863rd meeting, on 17 January 2017, spoke on behalf of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation (S/PV.7621, pp. 55–56; and S/PV.7863, pp. 48–49). The representative of Iran (Islamic Republic of), at the 7653rd meeting, on 21 March 2016, delivered a statement on behalf of the Non-Aligned Movement (S/PV.7653, pp. 53–54). The representatives of Slovenia and Panama spoke on behalf of the Human Security Network at the 7606th meeting, on 19 January 2016 (S/PV.7606, pp. 59–60) and the 8079th meeting, on 27 October 2017 (S/PV.8079, pp. 35–36), respectively. At the 7690th meeting, on 11 May 2016, the representative

<sup>145</sup> See, for example, letters dated 14 and 23 June 2016 from the representative of Eritrea to the President of the Security Council (S/2016/569) and S/2016/568), in which the Government of Eritrea requested an urgent meeting of the Council, in accordance with Articles 34 and 35 of the Charter, and that a representative of the Government of Eritrea be allowed to participate in and make a statement at the meeting, in accordance with rule 37 of the provisional rules of procedure of the Security Council. For more information on meetings, see sect. I above.

further, no instance of a request from a Member State to participate in a Council meeting being put to a vote or denied at a public meeting.

B. Invitations extended under rule 39

In accordance with rule 39 of the provisional rules of procedure, members of the Secretariat or other persons may be invited to supply the Council with information or give other assistance in examining matters within its competence.

of Thailand spoke on behalf of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (S/PV.7690, pp. 79–80). At the 7796th meeting, on 28 October 2016, the representative of Kazakhstan spoke on behalf of the States members of the Shanghai Cooperation Organization; and the representative of Belarus spoke on behalf of the Collective Security Treaty Organization (S/PV.7796, pp. 24–26 and pp. 26–28). At the 7910th meeting, on 31 March 2017, the representative of the United Republic of Tanzania spoke on behalf of the Southern African Development Community (S/PV.7910, pp. 12–13).

Following previous practice, an invitation under rule 39 was extended to a representative of a Member States, on an exceptional basis, only if his or her participation was in a role other than that of representative of a State, for example, as Chair of the Peacebuilding Commission or one of its country-specific configurations.<sup>150</sup>

During the period under review, a total of 667 invitations were extended under rule 39, 327 in 2016 and 340 in 2017 (see figure VI).

<sup>150</sup> For example, the following representatives were invited under rule 39: at the 7723rd meeting, on 22 June 2016, the representatives of Kenya and Sweden in their capacities as current and former Chairs of the Peacebuilding Commission, respectively (S/PV.7723, p. 2); at the 7976th meeting, on 19 June 2017, the representatives of the Republic of Korea and Kenya in their capacities as current and former Chairs of the Peacebuilding Commission, respectively (S/PV.7976, p. 2); at the 7787th meeting, on 10 October 2016, the representative of Morocco in his capacity as the Chair of the Central African Republic configuration of the Peacebuilding Commission (S/PV.7787, p. 2); at the 7883rd meeting, on 14 February 2017, the representative of Brazil in his capacity as Chair of the Guinea-Bissau configuration of the Peacebuilding Commission (S/PV.7883, p. 2); and at the 8109th meeting, on 20 November 2017, the representative of Switzerland in his capacity as Chair of the Burundi configuration of the Peacebuilding Commission (S/PV.8109, p. 2).

Invitations under rule 39, 2013–2017

Of the 327 invitees under rule 39, in 2016, 270 were men and 57 were women, whereas in 2017, of the 342 invitees, 258 were men and 82 were women. As shown in figure VII, in the recent past, the number of male speakers invited under rule 39 has been 3 to 4 times higher than the number of female speakers invited under rule 39. This notwithstanding, the percentage of women invited under rule 39 increased during the period under review, from 17.4 per cent in 2016 to 24.1 per cent in 2017.

Figure VII

For the purposes of this part of the Repertoire, invitations extended under rule 39 are classified according to four main categories, namely:<sup>151</sup> (a) officials of the United Nations system;<sup>152</sup> (b) invitees from international organizations other than the United Nations;<sup>153</sup> (c) officials representing regional intergovernmental organizations;<sup>154</sup> and (d) representatives of other entities such as non-governmental organizations.<sup>155</sup> During the period under review, invitations under rule 39 were most often extended to officials of the United Nations system; representatives of other entities, such as non-governmental organizations, were invited less frequently, as shown in figure VIII. Starting late in 2016, the Council increasingly extended invitations to representatives of civil society to brief it at meetings held to consider regional- or country-specific issues.<sup>156</sup>

<sup>151</sup> In previous Supplements, separate categories were used for invitees representing the Secretariat and Security Council subsidiary bodies and those representing other United Nations organs, subsidiary bodies or agencies. For the sake of simplicity the two categories have now been subsumed under the category “United Nations system”.

<sup>152</sup> For example, at the 7634th meeting, on 26 February 2016, the Special Envoy of the Secretary-General for Syria was invited under rule 39 (see S/PV.7634). At the 7990th meeting, on 29 June 2017, the Under-Secretary-General for Political Affairs was invited under rule 39 (see S/PV.7990). The category “United Nations system” includes officials of the African Union-United Nations Hybrid Operation in Darfur (UNAMID).

<sup>153</sup> For example, at the 7698th meeting, on 26 May 2016, the Prosecutor of the International Criminal Court was invited under rule 39 (see S/PV.7698). Similarly, at the 7898th meeting on 15 March 2017, the Special Representative of INTERPOL to the United Nations was invited under rule 39 (see S/PV.7898).

<sup>154</sup> For example, at the 7651st meeting, on 17 March 2016, the Head of the Delegation of the European Union to the United Nations was invited under rule 39 (see S/PV.7651). At the 8022nd meeting, on 10 August 2017, the Permanent Observer of the African Union to the United Nations was invited under rule 39 (see S/PV.8022).

<sup>155</sup> For example, at the 7699th meeting, on 26 May 2016, the Coordinator of the Association des femmes peuples autochtones du Tchad was invited under rule 39 (see S/PV.7699). At the 8119th meeting, on 30 November 2017, the Project Leader for Cultural Heritage Protection of the Italian Ministry of Culture was invited under rule 39 (see S/PV.8119).

<sup>156</sup> In 2016, Ms. Victoria Wollie, National Coordinator for the West Africa Network for Peacebuilding – Women in Peacebuilding Network in Liberia, invited under rule 39, briefed the Council under the item entitled “The situation in Liberia” (see S/PV.7824).

Videoconferencing

The Council continued the practice of inviting speakers who participated in the meetings via videoconferencing, a practice that has become increasingly prevalent since its introduction in 2009.<sup>157</sup> In the note by the President dated 30 August 2017, the Council members reiterated their intention to resort more often to the use of videoconferencing for briefing the Council, where appropriate, while preserving a balanced approach between videoconferencing and briefings in person, including during open meetings.<sup>158</sup>

C. Invitations not expressly extended under rule 37 or rule 39

During the period under review, the Council extended several invitations not expressly under rule 37 or rule 39 (see table 10).

Invitations to representatives of the Holy See and the State of Palestine to participate in meetings of the Council were routinely extended “in accordance with the provisional rules of procedure and the previous practice in this regard”, without specification of any rule.

<sup>157</sup> For example, at the 7603rd meeting, on 14 January 2016, the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for the Democratic Republic of the Congo and Head of the United Nations Organization Stabilization Mission in the Democratic Republic of the Congo was invited under rule 39 and briefed the Council via videoconference from Goma (see S/PV.7603). At the 7971st meeting, on 15 June 2017, the Commissioner for Peace and Security of the African Union was invited under rule 39 and briefed the Council via videoconference from Addis Ababa (see S/PV.7971). For more information on videoconferencing see sect. VI above.

<sup>a</sup> As set out in the note by the President of the Security Council dated 21 June 2016, following consultations among Council members, the Council agreed that, as from 22 June 2016, issues pertaining to peacebuilding and post-conflict peacebuilding would be considered under the item entitled “Peacebuilding and sustaining peace”. The earlier consideration by the Council of those issues under the item entitled “Post-conflict peacebuilding” would be subsumed under the new item.

D. Discussions relating to participation

During the period under review, when non-members of the Council were invited to participate in a meeting, Council members generally spoke before Member States invited under rule 37 of the provisional rules of procedure and before those not expressly invited under any rule, except on some occasions when parties directly involved in the matter under consideration took the floor before Council members.<sup>159</sup> The practice of the Council with regard to persons invited under rule 39 was less consistent and the order of speaking depended on whether they were participating to brief the Council.

A number of issues concerning participation in Council meetings were raised at meetings of the Council in 2016 and 2017. At the 7826th meeting, held on 5 December 2016 in connection with the situation concerning the Democratic Republic of the Congo, the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for the Democratic Republic of the Congo and Head of the United Nations Stabilization Mission in the Democratic Republic of the Congo, and the Assistant Secretary-General for Political Affairs, were invited to brief the Council under rule 39. The representative of New Zealand stated that his delegation “would have seen real value” in the participation of the Assistant Secretary-General for Human Rights in the briefing to share his observations on his recent visit to the country and the work there of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights.<sup>160</sup> At the <sup>159</sup> For example, at the 7722nd meeting, held on 21 June 2016 under the item entitled “The situation in Afghanistan”, following established practice, the representative of Afghanistan, invited under rule 37, spoke after the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Afghanistan and Head of the United Nations Assistance Mission in Afghanistan, who was invited under rule 39, but before Council members (see S/PV.7722). For more information on the order of speaking, see sect. VI above.

8079th meeting, held on 27 October 2017 in connection with women and peace and security, the representative of Spain proposed that at Security Council debates on country-specific situations members of civil society be invited, when circumstances warranted, to describe the situation on the ground.<sup>161</sup> Participation in Security Council meetings was discussed in more detail during the open debate held at the 7740th meeting, on 19 July 2016, under the item entitled “Implementation of the note by the President of the Security Council (S/2010/507)” (see case 6).

Case 6 Implementation of the note by the President of the Security Council (S/2010/507)

At its 7740th meeting, held on 19 July 2016 under the item entitled “Implementation of the note by the President of the Security Council (S/2010/507)”, the Council had before it a concept note circulated by Japan and for the purpose of looking at the implementation of that note by the President and other relevant notes concerning the working methods of the Council to identify successful practices as well as possible shortcomings, and consider making necessary adjustments.<sup>162</sup> During the discussion, the representative of Japan recalled that, pursuant to the presidential note dated 15 July 2016, newly elected members were invited to observe the Council’s meetings from 1 October immediately preceding their term of membership,<sup>163</sup> and expressed his conviction that this measure would benefit the Council as a whole by allowing it to function much more effectively right from the beginning of the year.<sup>164</sup> The representative of the Russian Federation said that the presidential note dated 26 July 2010<sup>165</sup> was an important aid for non-permanent members preparing to work on the Council, which would be particularly relevant in 2016 as newly elected members would be able to attend Council meetings starting on 1 October.<sup>166</sup> The representative of the Islamic Republic of Iran, on behalf of the Non-Aligned Movement, stated that the number of public meetings of the Council should be increased, in accordance with Articles 31 and 32 of the Charter, and that Council meetings should provide “real opportunities” to take into account the views and contributions of the wider membership, particularly non-members of the Council, whose affairs were under discussion in the Council. He emphasized that transparency, openness and consistency were key elements that the Council should observe in all its activities, approaches and procedures, and regretted that the Council had neglected those important elements in numerous instances; its failures included “repeatedly restricting” participation in certain debates and discriminating against non-members of the Council, particularly with regard to the sequence of and time limits for statements during the open debates.<sup>167</sup> The representative of Cuba stressed also that States that were directly “involved or especially affected” should always participate in the Council’s deliberations on issues that concerned them directly, citing Article 31 of the Charter.<sup>168</sup> The representative of Italy called for expanding consultation and cooperation with regional and subregional organizations, including by inviting relevant organizations to participate in the Council’s private and public meetings, as appropriate.<sup>169</sup>

VIII. Decision-making and voting

Note

Section VIII covers the practice of the Council with regard to decision-making, including voting. Article 27 of the Charter and rule 40 of the provisional rules of procedure govern the voting in the Council. They provide that decisions on procedural matters require an affirmative vote of 9 of the 15 Council members, while decisions on substantive matters are made by an affirmative vote of nine Council members, including all of the permanent members.

This section also covers rules 31, 32, 34 to 36 and 38 of the provisional rules of procedure, which govern the conduct of business with regard to voting on draft resolutions, amendments and substantive motions.

Article 27

1. Each member of the Security Council shall have one vote.

2. Decisions of the Security Council on procedural matters shall be made by an affirmative vote of nine members.

3. Decisions of the Security Council on all other matters shall be made by an affirmative vote of nine members including the concurring votes of the permanent members; provided that, in decisions under Chapter VI, and under paragraph 3 of Article 52, a party to a dispute shall abstain from voting.

Rule 31

Proposed resolutions, amendments and substantive motions shall normally be placed before the representatives in writing.

Rule 32

Principal motions and draft resolutions shall have precedence in the order of their submission.

Parts of a motion or of a draft resolution shall be voted on separately at the request of any representative, unless the original mover objects.

Rule 34

It shall not be necessary for any motion or draft resolution proposed by a representative on the Security Council to be seconded before being put to a vote.

Rule 35

A motion or draft resolution can at any time be withdrawn so long as no vote has been taken with respect to it.

If the motion or draft resolution has been seconded, the representative on the Security Council who has seconded it may require that it be put to the vote as his motion or draft resolution with the same right of precedence as if the original mover had not withdrawn it.

Rule 36

If two or more amendments to a motion or draft resolution are proposed, the President shall rule on the order in which they are to be voted upon. Ordinarily, the Security Council shall first vote on the amendment furthest removed in substance from the original proposal and then on the amendment next furthest removed until all amendments have been put to the vote, but when an amendment adds to or deletes from the text of a motion or draft resolution, that amendment shall be voted on first.

Rule 38

Any Member of the United Nations invited in accordance with the preceding rule, or in application of Article 32 of the Charter, to participate in the discussions of the Security Council may submit proposals and draft resolutions. These proposals and draft resolutions may be put to a vote only at the request of a representative on the Security Council.

Rule 40

Voting in the Security Council shall be in accordance with the relevant Articles of the Charter and of the Statute of the International Court of Justice.

This section comprises five sub-sections, namely: A. Decisions of the Council; B. Sponsorship in accordance with rule 38; C. Decision-making by voting; D. Decision-making without a vote; and, E. Discussions concerning the decision-making process.

During 2016 and 2017, rule 31 of the provisional rules of procedure was routinely applied in Security Council meetings. Council members made explicit reference to rule 32 with regard to the order in which two different draft resolutions should be put to the vote. As described in case 7, at the 8105th meeting, held on 16 November 2017 under the item entitled “The situation in the Middle East”, the President of the Security Council and the representative of the United States made explicit references to rule 32 with regard to the order of voting on two competing draft resolutions presented at the meeting.

There were no instances in which rule 34 was invoked during the reporting period.

Rule 36 was also explicitly referred to during the review period. At the 7643rd meeting, held on 11 March 2016 under the item entitled “United Nations peacekeeping operations”, the President of the Council invoked rule 36 and put to a vote an amendment submitted by Egypt to a draft resolution submitted by the United States. The proposed amendment failed to obtain the required number of votes and the Council proceeded to vote on and adopt the draft resolution.<sup>170</sup>

<sup>170</sup> S/PV.7643, pp. 2–3. The result of the voting on the proposed amendment (S/2016/239) was as follows: in favour: Angola, China, Egypt, Russian Federation, Venezuela (Bolivarian Republic of); against: France, Japan, New Zealand, Spain, Ukraine, United Kingdom, United States; abstaining: Senegal. The result of the voting on the draft resolution (S/2016/235) was as follows: in favour: Angola, China, France, Japan, Malaysia, New Zealand, Russian Federation, Senegal,

A. Decisions of the Council

During the period under review, the Council continued to adopt, at its meetings, resolutions and statements by the President, in addition to taking procedural decisions. Decisions of the Council also took the form of notes or letters by the President, which were seldom adopted at meetings and in most cases were issued as documents of the Council.

Spain, Ukraine, United Kingdom, United States, Uruguay, Venezuela (Bolivarian Republic of);
abstaining: Egypt. For more information, see part I, sect. 27, “United Nations peacekeeping operations”.

During the period under review, the Council adopted a total of 138 resolutions and 46 presidential statements. In 2016, the Council adopted 77 resolutions and issued 19 statements by the President and, in 2017, the Council adopted 61 resolutions and issued 27 statements by the President.

Resolutions adopted and statements by the President issued, 2008–2017

During the period under review, the Council also issued 23 notes by the President, 14 in 2016 and 9 in 2017, and 88 letters from the President, 45 in 2016 and 39 in 2017.

Multiple decisions at one meeting

During 2016 and 2017, the Council continued the standard practice of adopting a single decision at a meeting. There were, however, four instances during the period in which the Council adopted more than one decision at a single meeting. At the 7667th meeting, under the item entitled “Reports of the Secretary-General on the Sudan and South Sudan”, the Council adopted resolution 2280 \(2016\) and issued one presidential statement.<sup>171</sup> At the 7681st meeting, in connection with the situation concerning Côte d’Ivoire, the Council adopted resolutions 2283 \(2016\) and 2284

\(2016\). At the 8063rd meeting, under the item entitled “Identical letters dated 19 January 2016 from the Permanent Representative of Colombia to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General and the President of the Security Council (S/2016/53)”, the Council adopted resolution 2381 \(2017\) and issued one presidential statement.<sup>172</sup> At the 8135th meeting, under the item entitled “Reports of the Secretary-General on the Sudan and South Sudan”, the Council adopted resolution 2392 \(2017\) and issued one presidential statement.<sup>173</sup>

B. Sponsorship in accordance with rule 38

A draft resolution may be submitted by any member of the Council. According to rule 38 of the provisional rules of procedure, any Member of the United Nations may also submit a proposal, but a proposal may be put to the vote only at the request of a Council member. Those Member States that submit a draft resolution become sponsors of the draft resolution. A draft resolution is described as a presidential text if all the Council members agree to be co-sponsors.

During the period under review, 150 draft resolutions were considered by the Council, eight of which were presidential texts.<sup>174</sup> Figure X shows the number of presidential texts, compared to the total number of resolutions adopted per year, for the period from 2008 to 2017.

<sup>174</sup> Adopted as resolutions 2261 (2016), 2307 (2016), 2311 (2016), 2324 (2016), 2325 (2016), 2366 (2017), 2377 (2017) and 2378 (2017).

During the period under review, 23 draft resolutions were sponsored by non-members of the Council, as shown in table 11.

C. Decision-making by voting

According to Article 27 (2) and (3) of the Charter, decisions of the Council on procedural matters shall be made by an affirmative vote of nine Council members. On all other matters, that is, substantive or non-procedural matters, an affirmative vote of nine Council members is required, including the concurring votes of the permanent members. The result of a vote in the Council often does not in itself indicate whether the Council considers the matter voted upon to be procedural or substantive. For example, whether a vote is procedural or not cannot be determined when a proposal is: (a) adopted by a unanimous vote; (b) adopted by an affirmative vote of all permanent members; or (c) not adopted, having failed to obtain the nine affirmative votes required. When a proposal is adopted, having obtained nine or more affirmative votes, with one or more permanent members casting a negative vote, that indicates that the vote is considered procedural. Conversely, if the proposal is not adopted, the matter voted upon is considered to be substantive.

On certain occasions, in its early years, the Council found it necessary to decide, by vote, the question whether the matter under consideration was procedural within the meaning of Article 27 (2). This procedure is known as the “preliminary question”, after the language used in the San Francisco Statement on Voting Procedure. In recent years, including during the period under review, however, there have been no instances of the Council deciding to examine the preliminary question. Furthermore, procedural motions, such as the adoption of the agenda, the extension of invitations, and the suspension or adjournment of a meeting, have generally been decided upon by the Council without a vote.<sup>175</sup> When such motions were voted upon, the vote was considered procedural. During the period under review, the Council voted on procedural matters on four occasions (see table 12).

<sup>175</sup> At the 8073rd meeting, on 24 October 2017, a procedural motion on adjourning the meeting was put to the vote (see S/PV.8073 and sect. VI above).

Adoption of resolutions

During the period under review, nearly all resolutions adopted by the Council (126 of 138) were adopted unanimously. Twelve resolutions were adopted without a unanimous vote (see table 13).

Draft resolutions not adopted

According to Article 27 (3) of the Charter, a draft resolution on non-procedural matters is not adopted when it fails to obtain the nine affirmative votes required, or when a negative vote is cast by a permanent member. During the period under review, there were three instances in which a draft resolution was not adopted because it failed to obtain the nine affirmative votes required, two in 2016 and one in 2017; and eight occasions when a draft resolution was not adopted owing to a negative vote cast by a permanent member, two in 2016 and six in 2017 (see table 14).

D. Decision-making without a vote

A procedural motion or a substantive motion may be adopted in the Council without a vote or by consensus. During the period 2016-2017, two resolutions were adopted without a vote, namely resolution 2311 \(2016\) of 6 October 2016, concerning the question of the recommendation for the appointment of the Secretary-General of the United Nations, and resolution 2324 \(2016\) of 14 December 2016, concerning the tribute to the outgoing Secretary-General.

Statements by the President on behalf of the Council continued to be adopted by consensus. A total of 46 statements by the President were adopted during the period under review.<sup>176</sup> In contrast to past practice, according to which most of the statements adopted were read out at meetings, during the period under review, 22 of 46 statements were adopted without the text being read out. In several instances, resolutions and statements by the President were adopted during the course of a meeting rather than at the beginning or at the end.<sup>177</sup>

Following past practice, during the period under review, notes and letters by the President of the Council were adopted by consensus and issued as documents of the Council. In 2016 and 2017, the Council issued 23 notes and 88 letters by the President.<sup>178</sup> Notes and letters by the President are rarely adopted during Council meetings. During the period under review, one note by the President was adopted during a meeting of the Council, namely, the note concerning the adoption of the draft report of the Council to the General Assembly for the period from 1 August 2015 to 31 December 2016.<sup>179</sup>

Three notes by the President adopted during the period under review addressed aspects of the working methods of the Council. The note dated 22 February 2016 stated the commitment of Council members to improving the process of selection and preparation of Chairs of subsidiary organs, as well as the interaction and coordination among the subsidiary organs and between the subsidiary organs and the Council as a whole.<sup>180</sup> The note dated 15 July 2016 stated the commitment of Council members to implementing measures concerning the preparation of newly elected members and the selection and preparation of Chairs of subsidiary organs.<sup>181</sup> The note dated 30 August 2017 incorporated and further developed measures previously agreed to by the Council with regard to its working methods and contained in 13 notes by the President adopted since the issuance of the note by the President dated 26 July 2010.<sup>182</sup> The note by the President dated 30 August 2017 was issued under the Chairmanship of Japan of the Informal Working Group on Documentation and Other Procedural Questions. The revisions contained in the new note concerned, inter alia, the monthly programme of work of the Council, the practice of informal consultations of the whole, the process of drafting outcome documents of the Council, the dialogue with non-members of the Council and non-Council bodies, and Security Council missions.

<sup>178</sup> A complete list of notes by the President of the Security Council issued in 2016 and 2017 is provided in part I, sect. ## E. Discussions concerning the decision-making process

During the period under review, both procedural and non-procedural aspects of the decision-making process were discussed during Council meetings. The application and interpretation of rule 32 of the provisional rules of procedure was discussed at a meeting held under the item “The situation in the Middle East”, as described in case 7. Member States also discussed proposals to restrain the exercise of the veto, in particular the political statement on the suspension of the veto in case of mass atrocities presented by France and Mexico, and the code of conduct regarding Security Council action against genocide, crimes against humanity or war crimes, proposed by the Accountability, Coherence and Transparency Group.<sup>183</sup> These discussions were held at meetings under the items entitled “Maintenance of international peace and security” and “Implementation of the note by the President of the Security Council (S/2010/507)”, and are described in cases 8 and 9, respectively.

In 2016 and 2017, the exercise of the veto was also discussed at meetings concerning country- and region-specific items, particularly in connection with the crisis in the Syrian Arab Republic under the item entitled “The situation in the Middle East” (see case 10).

At the 8128th meeting, held on 8 December 2017 under the item entitled “The situation in the Middle East, including the Palestinian question”, the Permanent Observer of the State of Palestine explicitly referred to paragraph 3 of Article 27 of the Charter, and called upon the Council to adopt a resolution denouncing the recognition by the United States of Jerusalem as the capital of Israel.<sup>184</sup>

<sup>183</sup> Under the proposed code of conduct, the members of the Security Council would not vote against draft resolutions intended to prevent or halt mass atrocities. The members of the Accountability, Coherence and Transparency Group are Austria, Chile, Costa Rica, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, Gabon, Ghana, Hungary, Ireland, Jordan, Liechtenstein, Luxembourg, Maldives, New Zealand, Norway, Papua New Guinea, Peru, Portugal, Rwanda, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, Saudi Arabia, Slovenia, Sweden, Switzerland, United Republic of Tanzania and Uruguay.

Case 7

The situation in the Middle East

At the 8105th meeting, held on 16 November 2017 under the item entitled “The situation in the Middle East”, two draft resolutions concerning the Syrian Arab Republic were before the Council: one submitted by China and the Russian Federation, and one submitted by the United States.<sup>185</sup> According to rule 32 of the provisional rules of procedure, draft resolutions shall have precedence in the order of their submission. At the meeting, although the draft resolution submitted by the Russian Federation had been submitted first, the representative of the Russian Federation requested the President of the Council to first put to the vote the draft resolution submitted by the United States. He argued that the priority provided for in rule 32 allowed for the “possibility and right” for whoever submitted a draft resolution first to request that it be put to the vote first in cases when there was a counter draft before the Council; that was however a “privilege” that one could refuse to avail oneself of. He argued that submission should include “publication in blue” and the request for a vote. He concluded that since the United States delegation was the first to request a vote, the draft resolution submitted by the Russian Federation should be put to the vote second.<sup>186</sup> The representative of the United States responded by reading out the first paragraph of rule 32, and stressed the need to act “according to procedure”. She said that rule 32 specified exactly what the order of voting should be, and affirmed that the Council should be “disciplined”, “abide by rule 32” and “take the politics out of the situation”.<sup>187</sup> The representative of the Russian Federation requested a procedural vote on the question whether his country’s draft resolution should be put to the vote second after the draft resolution submitted by the United States. The President of the Council stated that in his understanding, in accordance with rule 32, the draft resolution submitted by the Russian Federation should be put to the vote first; as requested, he then put the procedural motion to the vote.<sup>188</sup> The procedural motion was not adopted, having failed to obtain the required number of votes. The representative of the Russian Federation subsequently invoked rule 35 of the provisional rules of procedure and withdrew his delegation’s draft resolution.<sup>189</sup>

Maintenance of international peace and security

At the 7621st meeting, held on 15 February 2016 under the item entitled “Maintenance of international peace and security”, several delegations emphasized the need to review the “right of veto”.<sup>190</sup> In that regard, many speakers expressed their support for the code of conduct regarding Security Council action against genocide, crimes against humanity or war crimes, proposed by the Accountability, Coherence and Transparency Group.<sup>191</sup> A number of Member States also urged the permanent members of the Council to voluntarily refrain from the use, or the threat of use, of the veto in cases of mass atrocities or crimes against humanity, and some referred to the political statement on the suspension of the veto in such cases presented by France and Mexico.<sup>192</sup> The representative of Peru emphasized that in some instances the Council had not effectively fulfilled its role in the maintenance of international peace and security and underlined the importance of achieving comprehensive reform of the Council, particularly with regard to its working methods, specifically the use of the veto.<sup>193</sup> The representative of Spain stated that, too often, the Council had not fulfilled its responsibility because one of the permanent members had used the right of veto or threatened to use it.<sup>194</sup> The representative of Guatemala also noted that the abuse of the use of the veto and the threat of its use had prevented the Council from fulfilling its mandate.<sup>195</sup> The representative of Ukraine said that the Russian Federation, in abusing the right of veto in the Council, neglected its obligations, as a permanent member, to maintain peace and security.<sup>196</sup>

At the 7857th meeting, held on 10 January 2017 under the same item, the representative of the United States stated that the Russian Federation had suggested in the Chamber that failure to respect State sovereignty was the main driver of conflict, even as it used its veto to insulate itself from the consequences of “trampling” on the sovereignty of Ukraine.<sup>197</sup> The representative of Ukraine deplored the Council's inability to react to the situation in the Syrian Arab Republic owing to the consecutive vetoes of one permanent member.<sup>198</sup> Several speakers reiterated the calls to restrict the use of the veto in cases of mass atrocities,<sup>199</sup> and the representative of Poland stressed that the Council should not be hampered by the use of the veto in taking action aimed at stopping or preventing situations involving war crimes or crimes against humanity.<sup>200</sup> The representative of Latvia emphasized that with the privilege of being a permanent member of the Council and having the veto power also came the responsibility to use that power in the interest of common peace and security, and noted that the Council had not always lived up to that special responsibility.<sup>201</sup> The representative of Finland, similarly, stated that the Council held a special responsibility in conflict prevention, and said that one concrete line of action to that end would be the commitment of all Council members to support timely and decisive action by the Council to prevent or end mass atrocities, and to refrain from the use of the veto in those situations.<sup>202</sup>

At the 7886th meeting, held on 21 February 2017 under the same item, speakers called for restraint in the use of the veto.<sup>203</sup> The representative of Ukraine referred expressly to paragraph 3 of Article 27 of the Charter, concerning the abstention from voting by a party to a dispute, and said that it was no longer acceptable that this provision continued to be "blatantly ignored".<sup>204</sup>

Case 9

Implementation of the note by the President of the Security Council (S/2010/507)

Decision-making by the Council, and the veto power, were among the issues discussed at the open debate on the Council's working methods held at the 7740th meeting, on 19 July 2016, under the item entitled "Implementation of the note by the President of the Security Council (S/2010/507)". Several speakers referred to and expressed support for the code of conduct proposed by the Accountability, Coherence and Transparency Group,<sup>205</sup> and encouraged permanent members of the Council to voluntarily refrain from the use of the veto, in accordance with the French-Mexican political statement on the suspension of the veto in cases of mass atrocities.<sup>206</sup> The representative of Ukraine called it a "disgrace" that paragraph 3 of Article 27 of the Charter, under which a party to a dispute shall abstain from voting, continued to be "blatantly ignored".<sup>207</sup> The representative of Georgia stated that the right to the veto should be restricted when a decision of the Council aimed at preventing crimes against humanity, war crimes, ethnic cleansing and genocide, and when a permanent member was involved in the conflict under consideration, and therefore could not exercise its rights impartially.<sup>208</sup>

The representative of New Zealand stated that elected members had to take responsibility for the way the Council operated; it was easy to blame permanence and the veto for the Council's "dysfunction", but the acquiescence of the non-permanent members was also a big factor. He said that, since nine votes were needed to adopt any resolution, and procedural resolutions could not be vetoed, if the 10 elected members were prepared to assert themselves, the five permanent members could not "dictate terms", especially on working methods, which were quintessentially a procedural matter.<sup>209</sup>

The representative of Belgium said that her delegation, like others, believed that there should be a moratorium on the use of the veto in cases of genocide, crimes against humanity and war crimes.<sup>210</sup> The representative of Cuba stated, further, that the veto was an "anachronistic and anti-democratic privilege" that should be eliminated as soon as possible.<sup>211</sup> The representative of Turkey asserted that the question of the veto was "the most obvious and urgent issue in the working methods" of the Council,<sup>212</sup> and the representative of Chile stated that, although the use of the veto did not constitute a method of work in itself, it had negative repercussions for the unity of the Council and its work, perpetuating the imbalance of power between the permanent and elected members.<sup>213</sup> The representative of Indonesia said that, while his delegation called for a complete abolishment of the right of veto in the Council, it would support steps to regulate its use responsibly, in view of the present entrenched realities.<sup>214</sup>

The situation in the Middle East

At its 7774th meeting, on 21 September 2016, the Council held a high-level briefing under the item entitled “The situation in the Middle East”. The President of Ukraine stated that the United Nations and the Security Council had failed to bring peace and security to the Syrian Arab Republic, and affirmed the urgent and critical need to reform the Council, particularly with regard to the veto power. He said that no veto should be able to block the Council’s action when it had to respond to situations of mass atrocities.<sup>215</sup> Referring to the right of veto, the President of Senegal, similarly, stated that the Council “must be reformed”. He suggested that a veto could be vetoed when there was a risk of genocide or crimes against humanity.<sup>216</sup>

At the 7785th meeting, held on 8 October 2016 under the same item, at which the Council failed to adopt two draft resolutions concerning the situation in the Syrian Arab Republic,<sup>217</sup> the representative of the United Kingdom condemned the fifth veto on that situation in five years on the part of the Russian Federation, saying that the veto had prevented the Council from reaching unity on the matter, had “denigrated” the credibility of the Council, and constituted a “cynical abuse of the privileges and responsibilities of permanent membership”.<sup>218</sup> The representative of Ukraine expressed disappointment at the fact that the political statement on the suspension of the veto in cases of mass atrocities, which he described as an initiative to curb the use of the veto by the permanent members, had yet to gain traction.<sup>219</sup>

IX. Languages

Note

Section IX covers rules 41 to 47 of the provisional rules of procedure of the Security Council, which relate to the official and working languages of the Council, interpretation and the languages of meeting records and published resolutions and decisions.

Rule 41

Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish shall be both the official and the working languages of the Security Council.

Rule 42

Speeches made in any of the six languages of the Security Council shall be interpreted into the other five languages.

Rule 43

[Deleted]

Rule 44

Any representative may make a speech in a language other than the languages of the Security Council. In this case, he shall himself provide for interpretation into one of those languages. Interpretation into the other languages of the Security Council by the interpreters of the Secretariat may be based on the interpretation given in the first such language.

Rule 45

Verbatim records of meetings of the Security Council shall be drawn up in the languages of the Council.

Rule 46

All resolutions and other documents shall be published in the languages of the Security Council.

Rule 47

Documents of the Security Council shall, if the Security Council so decides, be published in any language other than the languages of the Council.

During the period under review, rules 41 to 47 were applied consistently. At several meetings speakers delivered their statements in a language other than the six official languages of the United Nations, as provided in rule 44.<sup>220</sup> In one instance, a Council member expressed dissatisfaction with the interpretation of his statement. At the 7779th meeting, held on 28 September 2016, under the item entitled “Protection of civilians in armed conflict”, the representative of the Russian Federation took the floor to clarify that, in his view, the interpretation of his statement was not entirely accurate, and asked Council members to refer to the correct version of the statement which would be circulated at a later stage.<sup>221</sup>

<sup>220</sup> For example, at the 7637th meeting, on 29 February 2016, the representative of Serbia (First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Foreign Affairs) spoke in Serbian; the English translation was provided by the delegation (S/PV.7637, pp. 4–7 and pp. 24–25). At the 7653rd meeting, on 21 March 2016, the representative of Portugal (Minister for Foreign Affairs) spoke in Portuguese; the English interpretation was provided by the delegation (S/PV.7653, pp. 33–35). At the 7774th meeting, on 21 September 2016, the representative of Japan (Prime Minister) delivered his statement in Japanese; the English text was provided by the delegation (S/PV.7774, pp. 16–17).

By the note by the President dated 22 February 2016, Council members encouraged the Secretariat to maintain the translation of all United Nations sanctions lists into all official languages of the United Nations, and to ensure that the information on the websites of the subsidiary bodies of the Council, including the reports of sanctions monitoring teams, groups and panels, was accurate and updated in all official languages.<sup>222</sup>

X. Provisional status of the rules of procedure

Note

Section X covers the deliberations of the Council concerning the provisional status of the rules of procedure of the Council, last amended in 1982.<sup>223</sup> Article 30 of the Charter of the United Nations provides that the Council shall adopt its own rules of procedure. Since their adoption by the Council at its first meeting, held on 17 January 1946, the rules of procedure have remained provisional.

<sup>223</sup> The provisional rules of procedure of the Council were amended 11 times between 1946 and 1982: five times during the Council’s first year, at its 31st, 41st, 42nd, 44th and 48th meetings, on 9 April, 16 and 17 May and 6 and 24 June 1946; twice in its second year, at the 138th and 222nd meetings, on 4 June and 9 December 1947; and at its 468th meeting, on 28 February 1950; 1463rd meeting, on 24 January 1969; 1761st meeting, on 17 January 1974; and 2410th meeting, on 21 December 1982. Previous versions of the provisional rules were issued under the symbols S/96 and Rev.1–6, the latest version under the symbol S/96/Rev.7.

Article 30

The Security Council shall adopt its own rules of procedure, including the method of selecting its President.

During the period under review, the question of the status of the provisional rules of procedure, including in connection with Article 30 of the Charter, was raised at the 7740th meeting, held on 19 July 2016 on the working methods of the Council. During the debate, several speakers stressed that the Security Council rules of procedure should cease to be provisional and should be formalized in order to improve the transparency and accountability of its work.<sup>224</sup>
